

HITCH IN THE PROCEEDINGS

CITY AND COMPANY DIFFER AS TO TERMS

Esquimalt Road Widening—Cutting Down Trees—Conduits on Causeway.

There is a hitch after all in the settlement arrived at, with the Silver Spring Brewing company in regard to the old Fairall site on Esquimalt road. In order to obtain possession for street widening purposes of the strip along the front on which, according to the city's claim, the old building encroached the city agreed to let the company have a strip thirty feet wide on Lime street, the company to put up wooden buildings only on that strip and to vacate it at any time should it be needed for street purposes. This was embodied in a by-law, which was passed.

The company's understanding, as presented to the city solicitor through A. E. McPhillips, K.C., its lawyer, was that if it was ever asked to give up the Lime street strip it should have the right to resume possession of the strip it gives upon Esquimalt road. This information was communicated to the streets committee last night by City Solicitor Mann, who advised that the council go ahead with expropriation proceedings.

Mayor Hall said there had been an agreement to allow the company $200 for the work expended on foundations but there had been no understanding whatever as to the giving back, the Esquimalt road strip in the event of the city re-taking possession of Lime street.

It was decided that expropriation proceedings should be taken and Ald. Turner and the city barrister were instructed to take the matter up.

The work of local improvement on Belmont avenue was divided into two sections, from Fort street to Pandora avenue and from the latter thoroughfare to Pembroke street. The rate per foot frontage on the lower half was about a dollar more than on the other, owing to heavier work, and the owners turned the by-law down. The matter was referred to last night and ex-Ald. Gleason quoted as saying the cause of the defeat of the by-law was a question of grades. The opinion of the committee was that it was one to the differences in rate, and the general idea was that a mistake had been made in not striking one rate for the whole work.

Cutting Down Trees.

Taught by his past experience with cutting down trees the committee was rather cautious in discussing the matter of some of the trees on the north side of Pembroke street, between Cook and Chambers streets, where a sidewalk is being laid.

Street Superintendent Warwick said the trees were magnificent oaks and all but one could be saved if the sidewalk was put outside and a width of seven feet left inside, which could be boulevard.

Some of the aldermen were for saving the trees, while others were all for cutting them down sooner than have a boulevard inside instead of outside the sidewalk, or have the line of the walk was altered to suit in another block.

Finally it was left to Ald. Bishop and the engineer to decide what should be done.

A decision as to what trees should be allowed to stand and what felled along the south end of Government street was left to Aldermen Henderson and Turner and the engineer.

R. B. McMicking, local manager of the B. C. Telephone company, wrote to say that his company would not want to place its lines in a subway across the Causeway to use a conduit, supplying the material and allowing the city to do the work.

The matter was left in the hands of the electric light committee and the city electrician.

Taft May Postpone

Trip to North

President, However, Intends to Visit Seattle Exposition During Summer.

(Times Leased Wire.)

Washington, D. C., June 5.—There is a strong probability that President Taft will find it necessary to postpone until next year the Alaska tour which he has been planning for next August and September. The president yesterday called to the White House several senators who have had in hand the matter of an appropriation for the president's travelling expenses this summer and explained to them that although he still expects to attend the Seattle exposition, he felt that the northern trip might have to be abandoned.

The principal reason for this change in plan is said to be the condition of Mrs. Taft's health, although the prolonged session of congress and various incidental reasons have helped to bring it about. Mrs. Taft has been in a more serious condition since her recent breakdown than was at first given out, although a long rest is expected to restore her strength.

RACE MEETING IS A SUCCESS

ARRANGEMENTS PERFECT FOR OPENING DAY

Large Crowds Are in Attendance at Willows Track.

The greatest race meeting in the history of the city has commenced. Under a cloudless sky in the warm sunshine devotees of the sport of kings and all society dressed in its gayest raiment many colored and brilliant the sixty day meet has been opened. The big grand stand new from its decorator gaily dressed in seven hundred flags is crowded. Around the race track are deep lines of spectators crowding the rails waiting for the events.

The management of the Country Club have gone to an immense amount of trouble and the arrangements at the track are perfect. With the best of officials in charge the success of the meet seems assured.

Included among those in attendance are many ladies. The vice-regal box for Hon. James Dunsmuir and party has been very beautifully dressed for the occasion, while many social parties occupy the adjoining boxes.

Unfortunately D. R. Ker the president of the Victoria Country Club is not present. Important business took him to Alberta and last night the secretary received a wire that he would be unable to return in time for opening day. He however wired his hope that the meeting would open under the most favorable auspices, and his wish for the clubs opening success has certainly been realized.

Before the meeting commenced Manager Leighton said "We have worked to bring about a successful meeting. We have done what is considered necessary. The expense had been considerable, many thousand dollars more than any of those present would believe has been necessary to bring the appointments up to the required standard. But we have succeeded. I especially wish to mention Harry Hemming, J. E. Miller, George Fraser and the secretary and to thank them for the assistance rendered me. All the directors of the club have worked hand in hand with me to bring about success, and I want to accord them the credit for the success attained."

The sight is picturesque. The gaily decorated stand which has been in the hands of one hundred blue jackets from the Shearwater and the Egeria is resplendent in a profusion of bunting. The national colors and the national flags decorate the vice-regal box. The stand is one big scene of color and among the crowd on the broad promenade in front of the stand are dotted the uniforms of the Shearwater and Algerine and Jack-Tar is having his race day with the rest.

The B. C. Electric company commenced a ten minute service at noon and large crowds have been handled. Taxis, automobiles, carriages have been bringing their quota to the track. The new car arrangements with the terminus at the gates is being much appreciated and a special pathway from

CHILDREN'S DAY

AT THE EXPOSITION

Large Attendance Expected—Visiting Mayors Are Entertained.

(Times Leased Wire.)

Seattle, Wash., June 5.—Officially designated as children's day, to-day promises to be the biggest in point of attendance and interesting events since the opening of the fair. The day is also allotted to the navy yard, the Bremerton, Charleston and Fort Orchard and every Sound boat brought crowds of visitors to the city.

The exercises began in the amphitheatre at 10:30 this morning, with a chorus of 1,700 school children, accompanied by Wagner's band. Later a reception was tendered to committees, mayors and councils from the several cities participating in the day's programme.

Many other interesting features are on the day's programme, which will wind up with a grand fireworks display.

At noon to-day the total attendance since the opening of the exposition passed the 150,000 mark, which was the total attendance at the Portland exposition for the first month.

Clark and Stephenson engineered the railroad end of the smuggling after Mexicans. It is alleged, brought the Chinese across the border by fording the river at El Paso.

WANTED IN CALIFORNIA

ON CHARGE OF BIGAMY

Clerk Writes to Wife Telling Her That He Loves Another.

Redlands, Cal., June 5.—A letter which may prove the undoing of Victor A. McCreery, a drug clerk of Redlands, charged with bigamy at Redwood City, Cal., is in the hands of the district attorney of San Mateo county, while a copy of the letter attached to an extradition order is on the way to-day to Portland, where McCreery is being held.

The warrant was issued after it was alleged that McCreery had married Miss Mary White, of Redlands, while he had a wife and two children at Pasadena, Cal. The letter, alleged to have been written by McCreery and addressed to the woman whom he is charged with having deserted, reads: "Myrtle—you fully understood that I did not care for you, but loved another, who cared for me. You accepted my plan to separate and go to one who could love me."

"Now, if you really want to be right, knowing that I do not love you, why not go your way. I love Mary White and she loves me."

"Please let me have a peaceful home with one who cares for me."

STATE-OWNED CABLES WILL BE ADVOCATED

Decision Reached by the Colonial Delegates to Press Conference.

(Special to the Times.)
London, June 5.—At the meeting to-day the colonial delegates of the Imperial Press conference decided to advocate state-owned cables at subsequent meetings. All delegates were present with Thomas, of Adelaide, Australia, as chairman.

It is proposed that after the tour there will be another conference, but this is undecided.

It is stated that Earl Crowe has asked for the speakers' names on Monday, but that no names were given as it was decided, as moved by M. E. Nichols, of Winnipeg, that speeches on Monday be limited to ten minutes. The only question Monday to be discussed will be cable service.

MANY FISHING SCHOONERS OVERDUE

Boats With Over 200 Men Aboard Probably Caught in Ice Floes.

(Special to the Times.)

St. John's Nfld., June 5.—Over a dozen fishing schooners are now a week overdue from Bonaville Bay and much anxiety is felt over their delay. To add to the anxiety, fears are now entertained that the vessels may have been caught in the ice floes in Wednesday's storm which centered over this region. Over two hundred men are aboard the schooners.

QUARREL OVER ROPE RESULTS IN MURDER

Murderer is Taken After Eluding Three Posses for Several Days.

(Times Leased Wire.)

Placerville, Cal., June 5.—After eluding the determined members of three posses for several days, Thomas Pettus, murderer of Ed Stafford, a prominent resident of this county, to-day is behind the bars of the county jail. He was caught yesterday in the wildest section of the Shenandoah valley by Constable Wheeler, and was brought here after an all-night ride.

Pettus killed Stafford at Grizzly Flats after an argument over a small piece of rope. Pettus stated to-day that the day before the killing he sharpened his pocket knife, and that night dreamed he committed murder with it. It was with this knife that he killed Stafford.

MARSH BEATEN BY ST. YVES

MOTHER SLAYS THREE CHILDREN

ENDS OWN LIFE BY CUTTING HER THROAT

Murders Daughter and Two Sons While Temporarily Insane.

(Times Leased Wire.)

Corstana, Tex., June 5.—Killing her 12-year-old daughter and two sons, aged seven and two years, Mrs. J. M. Green committed suicide to-day. The woman was despondent over domestic troubles, it is understood.

A short time after her husband left the house to-day the woman suddenly went mad. Seizing a razor she cut the throat of her daughter, ruthlessly murdered her two-year-old son, fatally wounded her other son and then killed herself. The oldest boy was alive when neighbors, attracted by the screams of the dying children, arrived, but succumbed a short time later.

ABERDEEN MILL

EMPLOYEES STRIKE

Every Plant in Washington Compelled to Close Down.

(Times Leased Wire.)

Aberdeen, Wash., June 5.—Every lumber mill in Aberdeen is closed to-day by reason of the strike of mill hands. No demonstration of any kind has occurred and the strikers are orderly. No steps toward a settlement of the differences between the mill owners and their operatives has yet been taken and the fight is expected to be a long drawn out affair.

If the lockout continues for any length of time, serious results may be looked for, as it is impossible to buy a load of fire wood in the city and no orders will be taken for lumber. This will have the effect of seriously inconveniencing many families and putting a stop to all building operations.

WILL STOP TRACK

BETTING IN COLORADO

Governor Shafroth Determined to Enforce Law in His State.

(Times Leased Wire.)

Denver, June 5.—Governor John S. Shafroth announced to-day that he would use the power of the state to stop betting on horse races in Colorado. Race track men have decided to test the anti-betting law at minor meets in the suburbs of Denver and see what action the governor takes there. John Condon, of Chicago, has a lease on the Denver track, but will not attempt to hold a meet there if the governor stops the suburban races.

THE GERMANS AIM AT NAVAL SUPREMACY

Hostile Utterances at Meeting of Navy League—Great Britain Accepts Challenge and Will Rush Work on New Battleships.

(Times Leased Wire.)

Kiel, Germany, June 5.—Hostility to England marked nearly every utterance at the annual meeting of the German Navy League to-day. Statements were made which it is believed will have grave bearing on the strained relations between Germany and Great Britain and a delicate international situation has nearly reached a crisis which may mean war.

Admiral Koester presided at the meeting. Most of the delegates were fiery in their utterances and openly advocated accelerated up-building of the German navy, "to contest the present naval supremacy of England."

Resolutions were unanimously adopted which declare in favor of Germany winning the naval supremacy of the world.

Admiral Koester's speech was sensational in the extreme.

"Our naval policy must be persevered in," he declared, "Germany must continue her work of preparing a fleet that will enable us to cope with our most powerful rivals. A fleet that will keep Germany where she belongs among the powers of the world is an immediate necessity."

Count Reventlow was open in his attack upon England. He did not take the trouble to veil his words, driving directly to the point, when he exclaimed: "England's claim that she must 'rule the seas' is preposterous."

QUEBEC HAMLET ALMOST WIPED OUT

Much Suffering Likely to Result Among Homeless People.

(Special to the Times.)

Riviere du Loupe, Que., June 5.—The little town of St. Francois was almost completely wiped out by fire late yesterday. Out of twenty-four dwellings only one remains. Much suffering is likely to result. The loss cannot yet be estimated. A mile of railway track was also destroyed. The origin of the fire has not been ascertained yet.

TWO FOUND DEAD IN SAN FRANCISCO HOTEL

Death of Couple Believed to Be Fulfillment of Suicide Pact.

(Times Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Cal., June 5.—Lying across the foot of the bed in her room at the Hotel Berlin, the body of Emma Riley, a pretty employee at the hotel, was found by a clerk early to-day. The woman's hand hung over the edge of the bed, resting close beside the lifeless body of John Morgan, stretched upon the floor.

The room was filled with gas that had escaped from an open cock in a chandelier.

Morgan and Miss Riley are said by their friends to have been devoted to each other for more than a year, and they were supposed to be engaged to be married.

That the death of the couple was the fulfillment of a suicide pact is the firm belief of the police. No note of explanation was found. Morgan was seen to enter the room with Miss Riley at midnight. Their dead bodies were found by Clerk J. Barry, who smelled the escaping gas and broke down the door.

Both Miss Riley and Morgan bore excellent reputations.

ESCAPED PRISONER TAKEN.

(Special to the Times.)

Fernie, B. C., June 5.—Jos. Rameira, the Italian charged with being a member of the Black Hand, who escaped from jail here on Tuesday, was seen this morning by the C. P. R. agent at Elbo who notified the police. He was captured about 9 o'clock and will be brought into Fernie on the Great Northern train.

The entire assemblage applauded, and the count continued:

"England has no divine right to dominate the ocean. Germany and other reigning powers must contest for supremacy. Germany must at least rule the North sea and no interference with her will be brooked."

Several speakers repudiated the idea of an agreement with England which would have as its purpose the limitation of the Imperial navy, while others emphasized the necessity of a huge fleet capable of protecting Germany's trans-oceanic interests, whether in the Atlantic, Pacific or in the far east.

Will Rush Work on Ships.

London, June 5.—Eight new Dreadnoughts will be built at once by the British government as the result of the sensational session of the German Navy League to-day at Kiel. The government had hoped to delay the construction of these battleships because of the condition of the public finances.

The action of the Germans in throwing off the cloak of secrecy and admitting their intention of wresting the naval supremacy from this country, however, assured that the vessels would be built without delay.

Details of the meeting at Kiel have not been received here yet, but the meagre reports of the radical speeches delivered by the German delegates have been enough to directly increase the bitterness of the British anti-German feeling.

FLOODS CAUSE SERIOUS LOSSES

RAILWAY TRAFFIC IN KOOTENAY INTERRUPTED

Many Wash-outs Reported and Number of Points Are Isolated

(Special to the Times.)

Nelson, B. C., June 5.—Four railway lines are out of business in the Kootenay district by reason of washouts. On the Lardo branch of the C. P. R. are ten washouts, on the Nashup and Sandon section three, and on Skean Lake branch ten miles of track will have to be re-built.

The Crow's Nest line is having trouble and the Great Northern lines are not out of danger. Many Kootenay points are isolated and another thunderstorm occurred last night.

Columbia River Rising.

(Times Leased Wire.)
Portland, Ore., June 5.—Rising at the rate of one inch an hour, the water in the Columbia river has, within the past 24 hours, caused considerable damage at several points, and no relief is in sight.

At the Dalles the stream rose more than seven feet in 24 hours and is still rising. The beach is flooded as far as the Umattila hotel and several truck gardens are under water, according to reports received here to-day. The usual landing for boats has been abandoned, as it is submerged.

Similar conditions prevail at Vancouver, Wash., where the Columbia is reported 16 feet and 6 inches above low water. It has been rising an inch every hour. Three inches of water cover the Northern Pacific dock.

Word from Lewiston, Idaho, says the Snake river is also on a rampage, but no great damage has been done so far.

ROOSEVELT ON MARCH

Ex-President and Party Face Arduous Trip.

(By Warrington Dawson, staff correspondent of the United Press.)

Kijabe, June 5.—Col. Roosevelt's caravan started at 1 o'clock this morning on a march to the Lumba district where the ex-president will remain seven weeks. The natives here gave the colonel a royal farewell, the entire population of the country for miles around having gathered to see him depart.

The trip to Sotik is arduous. Within a few hours the party will be within the arid region and for two and a half days will march through the scorching sun. The caravan carried 125 gallons of water for use on the trip in this district.

CRAIGDARROCH HAS BEEN PURCHASED

Property Will Likely Be Subdivided by New Owners.

The stately home of the late Mrs. Joan Dunsmuir has been sold. The purchaser is Griffith R. Hughes, chartered accountant of this city. It is his intention to proceed with the subdivision as planned some weeks ago, and offer at least a part of it for sale.

The price paid is said to have been about $25,000, which is little above the actual cost of the building. The plan of subdivision include a street crossing the property from about the main gateway, with another cross street. There are one hundred and forty-four lots provided for.

BRIGGS' BICYCLE WAS FOUND THIS MORNING

It Lay Immediately Below Where Rider Went Over Wharf.

The finding of the bicycle on which young Albert T. Briggs was riding when he met his death on Thursday afternoon appears to afford an explanation of how the accident happened.

About a quarter to nine this morning Phineas Manson, who was dragging for the machine, pulled it up from a spot immediately in line with the spot where the body was found. The pedal on the right side was missing, the bell was broken, the front wheel was turned completely round and the fork was dented in at the top sufficiently to jam the wheel fast. The machine was taken to the police station and will be shown to the jury.

The Beaver lies beside the wharf and there is a space of six feet between the edge of the wharf and the rail of the tug at the point where Briggs went in. On the rail are two marks, two feet eight apart, made by some sharp metal edge apparently.

It is practically certain from the state of the wheel and the marks on the rail that Briggs lost control of the wheel, perhaps by some accident to the pedal, was unable to turn the corner sharply enough, and the wheel struck the scantling of wood which runs along the edge of the wharf. Rider and wheel would go over sideways, striking the rail, Briggs being stunned by the blow.

Had the wheel struck straight on or had the tug been closer in the rider would have pitched on to the deck, which was covered with coils of rope.

(Times Leased Wire.)
 Vancouver, B. C., June 5.—C.P.R. conductors in session in Montreal have sent an ultimatum to the company demanding the withdrawal of a new rule which compels them to sign a form declaring their train has not carried any passengers without tickets, pass or by paying fare. Second Vice-President Whyte has made a hurried trip to Montreal to try and settle the matter. All conductors from Atlantic to Pacific are affected.

C. P. R. TRAINS ARE DELAYED BY WASHOUT

(Times Leased Wire.)
 Vancouver, B. C., June 5.—Owing to a washout on the main line of the Canadian Pacific near Revelstoke, no through train from the East has arrived in Vancouver for three days. At the office of the company it is stated to-day that the overland train, which should have reached here last Thursday, will arrive here this afternoon in four sections, one hour apart. Six trains are held in the mountains, and all left Vancouver crowded, some having seven sleepers filled.

Half-a-dozen men had an exceedingly narrow escape this morning when a floor of the building on Langley street, being rebuilt for T. S. Gore, collapsed. The work has been going on in the rear, the back wall and vaults being run-up for two stories. The first floor of the old building was still standing and was being used for scaffolding purpose. It appears to have given way under the weight of materials and came down partially towards the front, carrying the hoist for materials with it. What saved the men who were below was that the beams on the Angel hotel side and midway to the back held the floor, forming a beam to act as a wall in the vault on the first floor is badly cracked. There were rumors of earthquake after the accident.

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE ON NAVAL DEFENCE
Proposal That Colonies Send Opposition Leaders as Well as Ministers.

London, June 5.—It is proposed in New Zealand to demonstrate the national attitude in support of the Empire in the face of foreign naval menace by sending the leader of the opposition, as well as Premier Ward, to the Imperial naval conference in July. Seeing that the Canadian attitude, as expressed by unanimous resolution in the Commons, is also national and entirely removed from party politics, it is suggested that Canada do likewise by Sir Wilfrid Laurier inviting R. L. Borden to accompany the ministers. It is felt that this would be a most effective demonstration to Germany and other nations that the Empire means unitedly to hold its own, and also to remind party men here that the security of the Empire is a question for common agreement, not political wrangling.

Lord Plunket on Conference.
Wellington, N. Z., June 5.—In addressing the students of Canterbury college yesterday Lord Plunket, governor of New Zealand, said he believed that the conference to be held in London to discuss the question of Imperial defence will prove to be the most valuable colonial conference ever held, of the true spirit of unity and real readiness for self-sacrifice existed in the Empire to-day, as he believed it did.

SHERIFF BLAMED FOR LYNCHING OF NEGRO

Officer Who Allowed Mob to Take Prisoner From Him is Dismissed.

Montgomery, Ala., June 5.—Frank Cazalas, who as sheriff of Mobile county, allowed a mob to take from him a negro prisoner, yesterday was removed from office by the State Supreme court after impeachment proceedings had been brought against him under a new law, making the sheriff responsible for prisoners. Cazalas was in charge of a negro on the night of January 21st, when a mob surrounded him and his prisoner. The negro was taken from the officer and lynched. A grand jury indicted Cazalas and acquitted the sheriff of blame. A mass meeting of citizens was held condemning the grand jury and a petition for impeachment of the sheriff was sent to Governor Comer. The governor ordered the matter laid before the Supreme court.

SCORES VICTORY OVER CALHOUN ATTORNEYS

Honey's Demand for Vouchers of Money Paid to Detectives is Granted.

San Francisco, Cal., June 5.—The prosecution in the Calhoun trial yesterday made a bold move, and one upon which its case may stand or fall. Special Prosecutor Honey, assisted by his confederates of the prosecution, succeeded in securing from the court an order to compel the officials of the United Railroads to produce as evidence the vouchers in its archives showing payments made to John Helms, Luther Brown and others, who were in the employ of the detective department of the company in 1908. Honey hopes by means of these vouchers to trace the money alleged to have been paid as bribes to members of the former board of supervisors. The demand that the vouchers be produced met with a storm of protest and objection from the camp of the defence. The special prosecutor was accused of an attempt to pry into the private affairs of the company and at the same time was informed that he was going on a "fishing expedition." Determinedly, Honey argued the bearing of the papers upon the case, with the result that the order of the court was given.

The claim that the vouchers in question are now in the company's office was confirmed by the testimony of its acting treasurer, Adam Dalber, who testified that it was he who had paid to Luther Brown the money owed him for services rendered as the chief of the company's detectives. This money, he stated, was not paid as a regular salary, but upon orders issued from the offices of Patrick Calhoun.

Delegates from Spokane, Tacoma, Portland, San Diego, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Oakland are to be present, and the report of Messrs. E. F. Blaine and J. D. Lowman, who made the trip to New York to arrange the matter of transportation with the railroads, will be read.

The exact route will be mapped out, the cities visited and the length of time in each place will be settled, and the entertainment of the visitors in Pacific coast cities will be planned.

BROTHER TOLD BROTHER

One Suffered for Fifteen Years, the Other for Thirteen.

The convincing powers of a testimonial were never more clearly shown than in the case of Mr. Hugh Brown. A brother, Lemuel Brown, of Avondale, N.B., read in the paper about Hon. John Costigan being cured by "Fruit-a-tives." Knowing the Senator would only endorse a medicine which had cured him, Mr. Lemuel Brown tried "Fruit-a-tives." They cured him of Chronic Indigestion and Constipation, so he urged his brother to try them.

Hartland, N.B., Oct. 24th 1907.
"Three doctors told me that I had Liver Disease and serious Stomach Trouble. My stomach was very weak. I took their medicines for thirteen years and grew worse. My brother (who was cured of terrible Indigestion by "Fruit-a-tives" after suffering for 15 years), recommended me to try these wonderful tablets. I bought half a dozen boxes and have just finished the sixth. I eat all kinds of hearty foods without distress and am greatly improved in every way. "Fruit-a-tives" also cured the Chronic Constipation which was so distressing in my case." (Signed) HUGH BROWN.

THREE SAFE-CRACKERS ESCAPE IN LAUNCH

Overpower the Engineer and Watchman, Beating Former into Insensibility.

Berkeley, Cal., June 5.—Three masked men early yesterday overpowered the watchman and engineer at the plant of the Pacific Guano and Fertilizer Company on the water front in West Berkeley, looted the concern's safe and made their escape in a launch. Good descriptions of the robbers were given to the police by the company's employees, and it is thought that they are members of the band of bay pirates who have been terrorizing the citizens around the harbor recently. Erasmus Jensen, watchman at the fertilizer plant, was on duty at 3 o'clock in the morning when three masked men sprang upon him. The safe-crackers overpowered him after a hard fight, and tying his hands and feet with a heavy rope, gagged him and threw him into an empty freight car standing on a side track nearby. Ten minutes later Peter Johnson, engineer at the plant, came to work and surprised the robbers in the act of drilling the safe. When the engineer entered the office one of the men slipped up behind him and dealt him a heavy blow with the butt of a revolver. Johnson was rendered unconscious and the robbers coolly rolled his prostrate body into the mill yard and left him for dead. The men, after completing their work on the safe, escaped with the contents, which amounted to only $2.

GENESIS AND SPIRIT OF SPORT.

In ridiculing the "fanned fool at the wicket and the muddled oaf at the goal" Mr. Rudyard Kipling gave expression to the sentiments of a great many soberminded and extremely practical people. Yet it is not better that the bottled-up energy of a naturally combative man should find physical expression in batting a ball around a field than in clubbing the head of his brother man? This generation, like all generations which have preceded it, must have a safety valve as an outlet for its superfluous energy.

Cricket and football and lacrosse and baseball are harmless pastimes, and besides they provide exercise for the muscles and relief from the drudgery of life's routine. They are substitutes for the destructive art of war, formerly practised against neighbors at home in an individual sense and against neighbors abroad in a national sense. The game of war has gone out of fashion to a considerable extent—we hope it will ultimately become absolutely unfashionable, if not absolutely impossible—and more reasonable forms of exercise and amusement have succeeded it. Nearly all the fanned fools and muddled oafs are yet to be found in Anglo-Saxon, or nearly Anglo-Saxon countries, such as the nations of which the British Empire is composed, and the United States. It may be that after we have taught the Latin, the Teuton, the Semite, the Mongol, etc., how to enjoy themselves upon the field of play, or how to enjoy themselves just as thoroughly by hitting others to play for them, we shall be appreciably nearer the millennium. That such a task is not impossible the spirit with which the foreign elements in the United States enter into the sports of the day proves. Is not Hans Wagner the champion batsman of the world? Furthermore, giving a further illustration of the catholicity of the spirit of play, have not some of the descendants of the original inhabitants of this continent become leading pitchers in the baseball game? To be sure the half-caste Latins of the South American republics are a difficult proposition. It will take, probably, a century or two to wean them from their sanguinary habits. But if they could be induced to conduct their presidential elections by ballot instead of by assassination, the victory would be all but won.

What about the sport of kings—horse racing? That phase of sport we prefer not to deal with at the present time. In passing we may say, however, what everybody knows, that everything, almost, depends upon its environment. Many of the states of the American Union have decided, not that there is anything inherently evil in horse racing any more than in any other form of sport, but that its surroundings have become objectionable and that in the interests of citizens the same shall be suppressed. We presume that is one reason why we are about to enjoy a very pretentious meeting in Victoria for the first time in our history. The races will commence this afternoon, and the people of Victoria will have an opportunity of judging for themselves whether the pastime should be given their support, or even tolerated.

Representatives of the Times have mingled to some extent with the race track habits since they came across the water, and in all candor it must be confessed that there is nothing in their manner or their conversation to stamp them as marked inferior in character or morals to the average run of the human species. They are quiet and inoffensive, attending strictly to their own business. If the greater body yet to come, the company upon which the meeting must rely for success, if it is going to prove a success, is as well conducted we do not see why there should be any objection to horse racing.

As to the betting evil, without which we are told, racing cannot prove financially successful in this country, that intimation should in itself be sufficient for the wise man, leaving the moral aspect of the matter entirely out of consideration. It indicates clearly the absolute futility of an outsider pitting his judgment or his money against the game. We hope all the youth of the city, therefore, will be careful not to permit their feet to wander in the direction of the betting ring. If sharp be restricted to sharp for his prey, little harm will be done. In the meantime we accept the announcement of the management that the public will enjoy some real sport.

Mr. G. H. Barnard, M. P., is back from his sessional labors. The newspaper which secured Mr. Barnard's election by lies, forgeries and other moral and criminal offences, naturally speaks flatteringly of the member's services to his constituency. No doubt Mr. Barnard did his best, but there is no direct evidence that his criticisms of the course of the government in regard to any question produced any material result. G. H. B., M. P., is admittedly a most amiable gentleman, but the truth must be told, and it is that neither he nor any of his brother Conservatives from British Columbia is ever likely to set the parliamentary heather on fire. Besides, Mr. Barnard entered Parliament carrying a heavy handicap. The manner of his election was continually rising up against him. He had an opportunity of freeing himself permanently from this load, but no one who knows him expected that he would seize it. Admittedly he knew all about the forged telegram forty hours or so before the polls closed on October 26, but he did not act the honorable part, expose the crime and refuse to avail himself of the political benefits of it. Mr. Barnard's course in the matter demonstrated that his only ambition was to secure election. The means did not matter, as far as he was concerned, until found out. Then he disclaimed responsibility and placed it upon an "emissary" of the Colonist. Perhaps the member will now bend all his energies to having that emissary brought to justice.

Constantinople, "the dirtiest city on earth," is to be cleaned, boulevarded and generally fixed up. Now we wonder if that ingenious method of increasing taxation without appearing to increase it; the local improvement system, will be adopted by the Mohammedan autocrat who rules the city on the Golden Horn?

A correspondent's letter in another column furnishes several substantial reasons why the water question in Victoria and neighborhood can never be satisfactorily settled except by the acquisition by the city of the works of the Esquimalt Water Works Company.

Floods are doing considerable damage in the interior of this province and in the neighboring states. But if Father Fraser keeps himself under control there will be little harm done.

What Other People Think

HIGH STEPPERS.
To the Editor:—As one of the public I feel greatly indebted to the Street Railway Company for providing the beautiful cars that now run on Fort street. But they have one fault; they sit so high on their trucks that old and infirm persons have great difficulty in reaching the platform. A lame or old man or woman, especially a woman—must be what the horsemen call "high steppers" to enable them to ascend or alight with safety and comfort. Cannot the fault be rectified? Cannot a plan be devised to give the old and infirm the pleasure of a ride without subjecting them to the danger of straining their sinews or breaking their bones?
PASSENGER.

EXPENSIVE WATER.
To the Editor: I think it is a disgrace to the province of British Columbia for the government to allow the people to be treated as some of us are by a private company, viz. the Esquimalt Water Company. Eight people have built little homes on Wellington street, Esquimalt, and the water company tells us that we cannot get water unless we pay 40c per front foot and $15 for tapping the main, or $25 for a 60-foot lot. I shall have to pay $25 for having a corner lot. Hard lines for people to get what rightly belongs to them, showing us what private monopoly will do, and Mr. Lobbe says we shall have to put the money up before we get the water, as the company has no money. In the meantime we shall have to drink surface water or get out.
S. WARREN.

INTER-URBAN RAILWAY DISTRIBUTION.
To the Editor: The rapid development and growth of the city is so clear that no one need enlarge upon it. Allow me through your columns to make a suggestion for the consideration of the three railway companies. The C. P. R. and the Sidney railway to make permanent connection with the electric railway, say at Victoria West and Douglas street, where the new interest, and that freight coming over these lines could be delivered from the cars direct during the night at the doors of the merchant to which it was consigned. This is done at Ottawa and other eastern cities, where the railway cars may be seen all over town between the hours of midnight and six in the morning. It would save handling and clear the sidewalks before business hours and not only eliminate from the streets a lot of slow cumbersome traffic, keep the sidewalks free of vast piles of merchandise during the day time, but also effect more speedy delivery and remove a constant nuisance from the sidewalks. It would in time add, no doubt, to the lines of the tramway for freight purposes as demands arose. It is difficult to estimate the progress of the town due mainly to the improvement of the harbor, the improvement of water facilities of transportation. It is difficult to realize that thousands have already been spent in the improvement of waterside premises; that thousands of dollars of capital have been invested in new buildings, the most up-to-date plant and machinery to meet the demands of new developments of trade made possible by the improved water facilities for transportation. It is difficult to realize the fact that from two to three times the number of men are to-day actually employed permanently in the port industries than were employed here only two years since. Yet these are the facts. Consider, too, that each mechanic employed, permanently, means an increase of from two to three in the total population of the city, and that their earnings are spent in the town and distributed throughout every branch of the community, spelling an increase of general prosperity. With these facts before me I commend to public consideration this possible development of inter-urban railway communication.

HOW TO REDUCE FAT PROPORTIONATELY

Proportion is the thing. A fat woman yearns to reduce her abdomen, but she doesn't want to produce a scrawny neck. This fact condemns the dieting method of reducing. You can't starve the fat off one place and not off another. Simply impossible. But why try dieting, or even exercising, when there is a better way of reducing fat than either.
Try the following: One-half ounce Marmol, 4 ounce Fluid Extract Case Aromatic, 4c ounces Peppermint water. Any druggist will fill the above cheaply. Take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime and see if in a few weeks you are not losing about a pound of fat a day—not from places where you are normally plump, but from those that are overly fat. The result works like a charm, I am told, and though it produces delightfully apparent results, yet it is perfectly harmless. Doesn't even cause wrinkles, they say who have used it, nor interfere with one's diet, which are two other exclusive and important differences. It possesses all over other fat reducers I ever heard of. Instead of being harmful, in fact, as so many of the advertised remedies are, it improves the health and appetite and complexion.
L. O. L. 1425 will hold its regular monthly meeting at the A. O. U. hall Monday next at 8 p. m. At this meeting the officers and members of L. O. L. 11510 will pay a fraternal visit. All visiting brethren welcome.

GAMBLING CONDEMNED BY GRAND JURY

Judge Winchester, of Toronto, Says Evil is Growing in Canada.

(Special to the Times.)
Toronto, June 5.—The grand jury in its presentation to-day deplored the gambling mania and the fact that fashionable society could gamble at Woodbine track, while the poor man who placed a bet in a cigar store was amenable to the law. There was danger of the province becoming known throughout America as the gambler's paradise. They further declared against the presence of King Edward and Earl Grey at race tracks, thus throwing a glamour over what was the greatest evil of the age, and urging that representations be made to Earl Grey demanding that his patronage be held from race tracks where betting is permitted. Judge Winchester in commenting on the presentment said gambling was the greatest evil in England to-day, and Canada is fast following in the footsteps of the mother country. Gambling was being suppressed in the States, but was daily becoming worse in Canada.
—At the city council on Monday evening it is likely that Ald. Rose's by-law raising the tax on peddlers and hawkers from 30c each six months to 75c will come up for discussion. There are several petitions from Chinese peddlers, signed by householders, protesting against any increase in the tax, and the peddlers desire to be represented by counsel. Ald. Turner has a by-law respecting the destruction of weeds, his idea being to get the work attended to by residents earlier in the year and ensuring their attention to it by severe penalties. Ald. Humber will discuss the high level tank on a resolution he has given notice of, calling for a return showing the amount spent on the tank so far.
—Before the trial of the action brought by John Arbuthnot against the city, in connection with the sale of Rockland avenue, is proceeded with an issue of law will be tried. The city maintains that once the property-owners have petitioned in favor of a work—the city becomes the dominant authority—is really the agent of the owners in carrying out the work properly—and that they have no further voice in the matter. The courts will decide this before the action goes to trial. If the city wins it will be an end of the matter, as the objection raised by the plaintiff is that the work was not done as the property-owners desired.

The Feed Door of a No. 200 Sunshine Furnace is 12 x 13 inches. This means that the largest shovel can safely be emptied into our smallest size, and that good-sized chunks of wood require no chopping in order to be used as fuel.
To keep the correct humidity for sanitary purposes, we place the water pan in right over the main door, a place where the heat and the householder can reach it. So in Sunshine Furnace the water never gets stagnant, and the householder never complains about the awkwardness of pouring the water in. Automatic Gas Damper allows furnace to be checked shortly after cooling. This saves fuel and protects plants in rooms above.

To make "Sunshine" the easiest-to-be-cleaned furnace, we construct two flue doors, and place same not only at an equal distance from each other, but at an equal distance from the large feed door. So the operator with an ordinary soot-cleaning brush can go completely around the radiator without inconvenience; and, what is more important still, can do this without having to put out the fire or take down the smoke-pipe.

The Pacific Club has finally decided upon the plans of their new club rooms which will be on the sixth story of the new Pemberton block. At one time it was proposed that the club should erect its own building, but it was found to be much more convenient to utilize the upper story of the block to be erected on the corner of Fort and Broad streets.
—The number of passengers carried over the B. C. Electric Company's line this month of May was 447,968. Comparing with the number of the corresponding month of last year, which was 437,924, a slight increase is shown. The number of passengers carried on May 24th was considerably less than last year's figures. This is practically due to the fact that there was nothing doing in the morning of this year's celebrations.

Good health is the first essential of happiness. Who will deny that, and who will deny that good health is largely dependent upon food, drink and the elimination of waste matter from the body? Ordinary water contains a large number of impurities which the best filters cannot remove, nor even boiling render quite pure. "White Rock Lithia Water" goes into the system pure as the dew, carries away all impurities and cleanses and tones wherever it reaches. Being an absolutely pure mineral water it is the one safe thing to drink. Either alone, or as a dilutant for milk, wine or whisky, White Rock is unsurpassed. Call for it at your hotel or cafe. WORK WILL TAKE YEARS TO FINISH

COUNCIL KEEPS ON ORDERING STILL MORE

Grading Foul Bay Road—Office Accommodation at the City Hall.

The city council continues to receive applications for local improvement works, to ask for reports from the engineer on them and then to order that the work be done. This in spite of the fact that there is more work piled up waiting to be done than can be accomplished for many months to come. "What is the use of passing works that will not be done till goodness knows when?" asked Ald. Mable. "Can the engineer tell us how many miles of work have been passed?" "It is more important to know how much has been completed and how much remains to be done," remarked Ald. Ross.

The city engineer put in his list of works. This includes forty separate works—roadways, sidewalks, etc.—of which only one has been completed, eleven are under way and twenty-eight have not been commenced.

Some of the aldermen advocated letting works by contract if there was no other chance of their being done. "You have work enough in sight for years at your present rate of going and keep on ordering more," said Ald. Humber. "Where do you expect to end up?"

No action was taken.

Province Will Not Pay.

The provincial government will not pay its assessment of the cost of Richardson street works, and it now appears that it never proposed to. Several aldermen and then Mayor Morley at that time were under the impression that the government were doing so but when the bill was sent in the city was referred to the letter the public works department had written. This could not be found, nor any trace of its reception, but a copy obtained from the department showed that consent to the work being carried out had been given on the understanding that there was to be no cost to the government. "I suppose we will have to pay it all," said Ald. Stewart. "How would it be to charge it up to ex-Mayor Morley?"

Captain A. C. McCallum appeared before the committee on behalf of the residents on Foul Bay road, to ask that the road be put in proper shape, to get which don't they were willing to pay four-fifths of the cost. The owners in Oak Bay were prepared to do their share. A request was also made for a light at Foul Bay road and Fairfield road.

Ald. Turner said the chief difficulty was that the city had a great deal of work before it.

Aldermen Mable and Ross were in favor of having the work done by contract, the city engineer to make an estimate as well.

In the end the engineer was instructed to confer with the Oak Bay municipality as to doing their share of the work, and if satisfactory arrangements are made to proceed with the work at once.

More Office Space.

Building Inspector Northcott submitted a plan for alterations to the north end of the city hall building, to give more office space for the city engineer, water department and assessor. These would cost $4,000. Temporary accommodation would be found for officials in the council chamber. The plan provides for putting the assessor's office upstairs, knocking the corridor leading to his present office into the treasurer's office and running a counter the full length.

The committee ordered that the work be done. Nothing will be done at present in regard to the proposition to cut off half the council chamber and make offices.

A petition from forty-six owners on Douglas street, Speed avenue, Frances avenue and Alpha street for sewers was referred to the engineer for report as to cost. The petitioners pointed out that they had been paying taxes for many years patiently and would like to get something done.

The work of paving Quadra street, to Hillside avenue, with tar macadam was reported on favorably by the engineer. A petition from owners on Fell street, between Oak Bay road and Leighton road, which is unimproved property, cannot be granted at present.

The fire department object very properly to the use of the hydrants for filling water-sprinklers or for any other use, and as there has been $700 spent so far this year on repairs to hydrants on that account the city council backs the fire chief up. City Engineer Topp recommended last night that special connections be put in in the middle of the roadway at several points for filling the sprinklers. These will cost $25 each. The committee ordered that they be put in.

A Good Trainer.—You will find that wire netting makes a good, neat trainer for sweet peas. Easy to erect. Six ft. high cost $6.00 per roll of 150 ft., or 16c per yd. in 10 yd. lots; 5 ft. high, $5.50 per roll, or 13c in 10 yd. lots.—R. A. Brown & Co., 120 Douglas street.

TWO NEW PASTORS IN METHODIST PULPITS

Rev. A. N. Miller Comes to James Bay and Rev. A. Anderson to Centennial.

Two of the Methodist churches of the city will welcome new pastors to-morrow. Centennial church will have in the pulpit the Rev. Andrew Henderson, who takes the Rev. S. J. Thompson's place as pastor of that church. A brief sketch of Mr. Henderson appeared in the Times last week.

James Bay church will welcome the Rev. Arthur N. Miller, who comes to this city from Enderby, in the Okanagan valley. Mr. Miller has spent the last four years as pastor of the Enderby circuit, and is known as a faithful pastor and a very kindly, confident man. He will make many friends. He brings to James Bay the experience of many years in the province, for he has been preaching in this country since 1888. In the early days his work was among the Indians of the province, and he was stationed at Port Simpson and Queen Charlotte Islands, while in that department of the church work. Since then he has had successful pastorates at Langley, Eburne, Ladner and Enderby. For the past two years he has been chairman of the Okanagan district and has had the responsibility of the outlying portions of that great valley as well as his own charge of Enderby.

The advent of Rev. Mr. Miller marks a stage in the development of the James Bay church. Heretofore a young unmarried man has been the pastor of the church, but now they have accepted the responsibility of a married man and have fitted up a home for the pastor and his family.

The Rev. G. R. B. Kinney, B.A., who preached his farewell sermons last Sunday to the James Bay congregation, left on Wednesday last for Edmonton, from which point he will start on another of his mountain exploration trips, returning in six weeks' time to Keremeos, in the Similkameen valley, where he has been stationed by the recent Methodist conference.

Charles Dayton Suffered From Early Youth but the Old Reliable Kidney Remedy Banished His Ills and Made Him Strong.

St. George, Can., June 4.—(Special).—Yet another case in which ill-health inherited from parents has been vanquished by Dodd's Kidney Pills is that of Mr. Charles Dayton, a farmer well known in this neighborhood.

"I suffered from a number of ill-effects from an early age," says Mr. Dayton, who is now thirty-two years old. "I inherited my trouble from my parents. I was weak, nervous and run down. I suffered from backache and my muscles would cramp. I had a heavy dragging sensation about the loins. I was always thirsty; I had great difficulty in collecting my thoughts, and my memory was failing me."

"I was altogether in a bad way when I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills but they helped me almost from the first box. They gave me strength and helped me so much in every way that I am satisfied a little longer treatment will make me a well man."

Mr. Dayton's symptoms were the symptoms of Kidney Disease, and symptoms of Kidney Pills cure every form of Kidney Disease, no matter what stage it is in or how it is contracted.

NURSERIES EXTRACT FROM "BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL" March 23, 1907. "A Most Valuable Food" At a time when the preparation of artificial foodstuffs is receiving more attention than ever before, and when new forms of easily assimilable fat to take the place of cod liver oil are being frequently brought to the notice of the medical profession, it is desirable that some of the older forms of administering natural fats should not be lost sight of. Among natural fats, butter easily ranks first for nutritive value, and when combined with a suitable soluble carbohydrate, a most valuable food is produced. The BUTTER-SCOTCH which Messrs. Callard & Bowyer (Duke's Road, Euston Road, N. C.) have prepared for fifty years, is such an article, which has the great advantage of being palatable, so palatable, in fact, that children are more likely to need restraining from excess than any preparation to make it. This BUTTER-SCOTCH is stated to contain 47 per cent of fat and 73 per cent of sugar, and the results of an analysis which we have made recently of a specimen substantially confirm these figures; further chemical examination of the fat extracted showed it to be genuine butter fat. This confection can therefore be recommended not only as a harmless sweetmeat, but also as a very useful addition to the diet in suitable cases. In all the principal candy stores in Victoria.

WHY NOT OWN AN AUTOMOBILE? If automobiles are needed anywhere as all they are in the country. One of the speakers of the Women's Institute, at Guelph, recently predicted that the time was near at hand when farmer's wives would run their own automobiles. Nor is the prediction a visionary one. Like the telephone and the trolley, the automobile seems destined to add to the comfort of country life, and the cost will not interfere with your buying. We can sell Good Second-Hand Machines at a mere fraction of original cost. These cars are taken by us as part payment for the newest and latest models, and are such as we can thoroughly recommend. Any machine we send out is guaranteed to be in first-class condition, and beyond the fact that second-hand cars are not this year's style, there is nothing wrong with them in any way. We use them as a means of introduction to the country trade, and make the values extra special to encourage quick buying. VICTORIA WEST LOST GAME TO NORTH WARD

Winners Score Four and Shut Out Their Opponents. The North Ward lacrosse twelve met and defeated the Victoria West team last night at the Royal Athletic park. The score was four to nil. Victoria West was weakened by the absence of Johnston, Corke and Brown. The first goal came at ten minutes after the start scored by Johnston. Up to that time the play had been fairly even and continued even after the first goal right up till the end of the second quarter, when Sylvester scored. The last two were scored in the final quarter by Johnston and Menzies, the latter sending home a flying shot from far out in the field.

HARD LUCK FOR PORTLAND BOWLERS

Fluke Deprives Teams of Richest Prize of Western Tournament. Seattle, Wash., June 5.—Portland bowlers to-day are lamenting the ill-luck that just night deprived them of the richest prize of the western bowling congress tournament, the five men team championship, on the rankst kind of a fluke. With victory and first money, $500, within their grasp the Portland pin smashers saw triumph slip away from them on the last ball rolled in the long contest. The Portlanders were running just ahead of the record set by the Denver bowlers a few nights ago. The last man in the last frame, Kruse, had only to make a strike or a spare to clinch the championship. But as he took his preliminary swing, his foot struck a wet spot on the floor and his ball rolled into the gutter. The team total was 2,719, four-plus behind the Denverites. Portland is now in second place.

The tournament is drawing to a close and interest is becoming keener. From now on to the close, the bowler will be hot after records, and there is a chance that all will go by the board. CRICKET. SOLDIERS DEFEAT SAILORS IN RING

Infantrymen Carry Off Honors in Three Classes in Fistic Tourney. (Times Leased Wire.) Seattle, Wash., June 5.—The army is still celebrating to-day its victory over the navy. The passage at arms was not with the implements of war, but the result of five fistic contests in Cort's arena on the Pay Streak at the exposition last night. They were the last of the military and athletic events of the tournament which has been held at the exposition grounds.

The bouts resulted as follows: 115-pound class—L. H. Coffey, cruiser Washington, and A. E. School, cruiser California, draw in three rounds. 125-pound class—R. H. Dixon, cruiser Maryland, defeated by E. A. McFarland, of the Third Infantry, in three rounds. 135-pound class—E. H. Shepherd, of the Third Infantry, beat W. Cruiser, of the Colorado, in three rounds. 145-pound class—Holt, of the Third Infantry, won over Nelson, of the cruiser West Virginia. Heavyweight—Jack Cavin, of the Third Infantry, knocked out E. J. Smith, of the cruiser Pennsylvania, in the second round. Each of the winners was presented with a medal.

RING GOSSIP

(Times Leased Wire.) San Francisco, June 5.—If Young Corbett sticks to his determination to come to San Francisco, his 10 to 1 bet that the promoters will be tumbling over one another to grab the Denverites services. As one of the principals in a 10 round preliminary to the Leach Cross-Dick Hyland fight, Corbett would add immensely to the receipts for a more popular boxer never appeared before a San Francisco fight audience.

The statement by Dan McRetrick, Joe Jeanette's manager, that Sam Langford is "all in" must be taken with a grain of salt. Dan talks very much like the small-boy who whistles when passing a grave yard. Incidentally, why did McRetrick hustle his black fighter away from Paris just as Langford appeared on the scene? It isn't impossible that the beating Langford administered to Jeanette in New York last summer could have had anything to do with his hasty departure. Jeanette, who was the idol of Paris when he left the gay capital, because of his defeat McVey, could have picked up a pretty penny by meeting Langford, and as he and his manager are so sure that the bone crusher is all in, it seems rather odd that they should have avoided the issue. Langford and Jeanette have had three meetings, two being 12 round draws and the third a six round non-decision affair, in which Langford gave Jeanette a most unmerciful trouncing. Frankie Neil and Johnny Frayne are due in town to-morrow after a year's campaign in the east. Neil to prepare for his battle with Monte Attell on the 19th, and Frayne to seek a match with any of the good lightweights. Frayne, despite a long spell of illness, did quite well in New York. He lost but one battle and that was a 10 round scrap with Freddie Welsh. Neil performed with indifferent success, but always made a good showing, particularly in his go with Owen Moran, who had the best of the weight. Although heavily punished in every one of the ten rounds they fought, Neil gave an exhibition of gameness that won him many friends.

WIN FOR YOUNG CORBETT. New York, June 5.—Young Corbett, of Denver, after going the ten-round limit last night won by a small margin a bout with Sammy Smith before the Fairmont A. C. The former light-weight champion showed many marks of the fight when the final gong sounded. The final rounds Corbett fought with a split lip. Match Called Off. New York, June 5.—The scheduled fight between Young Corbett and Leach Cross for next Friday night has been called off on account of an injury to one of Cross's hands. Young Corbett to-day said that in his opinion Cross was afraid to meet him and gave out the injury story as an excuse for avoiding him.

RACING MAY BE BARRED IN MEXICO

Report That President Diaz Will Not Sanction Track at Tia Juana. San Diego, Cal., June 4.—That President Diaz of Mexico has decided that he will not sanction the proposed race track at Tia Juana because such action might be construed as unfriendly to California, a state of a friendly power, is an authoritative statement made here by a member of the Masonic party which escorted the "Silver Trowel" to Mexico City. The attitude of Diaz is said to have been revealed by a remark made by a high Mexican official that Diaz would do nothing to encourage a sport on the Mexican border which had been barred by the United States.

BASEBALL TO PLAY BY ELECTRIC LIGHT

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 5.—Baseball by electric light is the innovation that will soon be given a trial at the local baseball park. Mechanics are now at work installing the artificial suns.

A., R. Brewster and B. Vato, Geo. Dickson and H. C. Beasley and the J.B.A.A., sent Winsby, Baylis, Coleman, and Sweeney. The J.B.A.A. ball team went up also and will play a Duncan nine this afternoon.

SELLS POLO PONIES

London, June 5.—Frank J. Mackay, of Chicago, has sold his entire stud of ponies to Capt. Miller, the Burlington player. It was at first thought, when the news came, that the Englishmen, who are in a plight for want of good ponies to meet the Meadowbrook polo in the matches for the American polo cup that begins here June 22nd, had adopted this means of filling their stables, but Mackay, before selling, took care to protect his fellow countrymen and it is expressly stipulated in the sale contract that none of the ponies are to be used in the international matches. Mackay first offered his entire string to the Meadowbrook team, but they were not wanted. Mackay is giving up polo, at least temporarily.

THE COMBINATION TREATMENT FOR CANCER

Many Cures Being Effected by a Simple Home Treatment. If you have a lump in your breast or any other symptom of cancer you will be glad to know of a rational method of curing it without the use of acaustic plasters or dangerous operations. Those who have used the Combination Treatment are most enthusiastic in its favor. It cures after other methods have failed and even in most extreme cases it eases the pain and has been known to make perfect cures even after all hope had been despaired of. In all fairness, however, we wish to say that there is a point in the history of every case beyond which it is not safe to go and the chances of a cure are largely increased when treatment is commenced in the earlier stages of the disease.

IF DUNLOP AUTOMOBILE TIRES ARE NOT GENUINELY GOOD WHY ARE THEY SO GENERALLY POPULAR?

The chief reason is that the "GILLETTE" meets the requirements of every shaver the world over for a quick—simple—easy—comfortable shave. The best proof that the "GILLETTE" is the highest type of perfection in razors is, that the men of all civilized lands now demand the "GILLETTE" Razor and the "New Process" Blades. The men of Canada are especially well pleased with the "GILLETTE," and take not a little pride in the fact that it is made by Canadians in the Canadian factory at Montreal.

FINAL SESSION OF CONVENTION

KING'S DAUGHTERS CLOSE THEIR MEETINGS

Vancouver is Accepted as the Next Place for Gathering.

The final session of the King's Daughters' convention began shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, opening with devotional exercises and the roll call.

After discussing the question from every standpoint and receiving Mrs. Hasell's most satisfactory legal report on the same, it was decided that the society should incorporate, leaving it to the discretion of the executive to arrange details.

The reports of the different circles throughout the province were then received.

Edith Thornton Fell, secretary-treasurer, reported for the Victoria circle. There is a membership roll of twelve, eight of whom are active and much interested in the work. During the winter a social evening was held at the home of Mrs. H. A. S. Morley, when $25 was added to the fund for the purchase of an invalid chair.

An At Home was also held at the residence of Mrs. Thornton Fell, at which $79 was made. The circle took charge of a candy stall at the flower show in the Empress, making $24, and $15 was donated towards new dining room chairs for the Old Ladies' Home, also twelve yards of cloth and some fancy articles to the anti-tuberculosis rummage sale, and at Easter twenty-four candy boxes to the Protestant Orphanage.

During the year a second rolling chair has been purchased. Both chairs are kept, by the courtesy of Mrs. Newton, at the Casey Corner rooms. These chairs are in continual demand. No charge is made for their use except the cost of expressage.

The work now on hand is the renting of the King's Daughters' room at the Jubilee hospital with new curtains, cushion covers, etc.

Cash donations have been received from Mrs. Robert Croft, $5; Mrs. Sarah Spencer, $5; Mrs. Tilton collected $10, and $15 was received from the executive as the circle's share of the money made by the Cowichan Bay excursion.

Five new members joined the circle during the year. The financial statement showed the following: Balance carried over, $45; received during the year, $38.90; expenditure, $29.45; and cash on hand, $28.90.

Mrs. Hardie reported for the Victoria Ministering circle, that the year's work had been commenced immediately after the last convention, when, in conjunction with the Hawthorne branch, an excursion was held to Cowichan Bay in July. This was very successful financially, and with the proceeds two dozen dining room chairs were purchased for the Old Ladies' Home, on October 15th a bag of infants' clothes were sent to the Refuge home. In December infant's clothes were sent to a needy case, and other needy cases were attended to, garments for mother and child being given. Materials were provided and six dressing jackets made for inmates of the Old Ladies' Home.

In March the president, Mrs. Shaw, visited the circle. The society assisted with the Primrose Day flower show, held in the Empress.

Twelve regular meetings have been held, and three special ones. There are thirty seven members, three new members having joined during the week.

The receipts have been $57.95; expenditure, $51.20; balance on hand, $6.75.

Miss Agatha Elaine McMicking reported for the Hawthorn circle, Victoria, as follows: Meetings have been held regularly throughout the year, on the 1st and 3rd Friday of each month, at the rooms on Fort street. Work undertaken consisted chiefly of sewing for the Jubilee hospital. On April 19th the society took part in a successful flower show at the Empress hotel.

Money raised during the year, $17; expenses, $10; balance, $7.

Miss Margaret A. Dyke reported for the Help in Need circle, Crofton, eight members. Work was almost at a standstill during the past year, as the smelter has been closed, and people have moved away. Fancy work has been done by which the circle hopes to net $50. The greater part of money on hand will be given towards an invalid chair for Victoria, and the money from the coming sale of work to go towards an invalid chair for the Duncan Convalescent home. Both chairs to be known as the Crofton chairs. Cash on hand, $51.35; received during year, $7.25; making a total of $58.20.

Miss Arabella Welsh recording secretary for the Looking Out circle at Duncan, reported that the circle had accomplished very little work during the year, owing to the illness of its leader. There are at present thirteen members, two having resigned and four new ones having joined during the year.

Miss McKimney, a missionary from India, spoke to the circle last autumn on behalf of the orphan children at the Benares Bible Mission school, and the circle decided to adopt a little Indian girl, paying $13 a year for her maintenance. The circle has paid the money for one year, and will have a sale of work in December to raise the money for next year. Amounts raised during year, including $10 balance on hand, $29.35; expenditure, $25.25; leaving a balance on hand of $4.10.

Miss Maude Pierheller, for the Labor of Love circle, Vancouver, reported meetings held the first Tuesday evening of the month at the home of Mrs. Allen. The circle is in conjunction with St. Andrew's circle. A Christmas box was sent to the Galicians at Sifton, Man., filled with flannel underwear and other things for mothers and children's use. A bolt of white flannel was donated to the rescue home of the Salvation Army. Talks on interesting and instructive subjects have been given during the year. The society has contributed music on several occasions. There is a membership of nine and an average attendance of seven. The receipts since organization last September were $20.75; disbursements $19.50; balance on hand, $1.25.

Mrs. Bogardus, for the Wesley Practical circle, Vancouver, reported a membership of thirty-two. Money was raised during the year at a kitchen sale and also by the sale of cook books. Different poor families have been helped during the year. The amount raised during the year was $294.10; of this $248.55 was spent, leaving a balance of $45.55.

Miss Margaret M. Muir, for St. Andrew's circle, Vancouver, reported thirty-two regular meetings held and a membership of twenty-five, with an average attendance of twelve. Five Christmas dinners were sent out besides candles and toys. Thirty-one dollars was contributed towards bookshelves for the library of the Children's Aid. Assistance was also given to the Victoria Order of Nurses, of children's clothing, etc.

Miss Veda I. Ventress, recording secretary for the Silver Cross Circle, of Duncan, reported a membership of twelve with the following officers: Leader, Mrs. MacDonald; vice-leader, Miss M. Duncan; treasurer, Miss Anderson; recording secretary, Miss Ventress. During the summer no regular meetings were held after the annual convention last year until the annual sale, at which $13.60 was cleared. During the year an aged woman was helped several times with blankets and other necessities. During the winter the circle hemstitched table linen for the Chemainus hospital. The financial report for the Silver Cross circle, which was submitted by Miss Mary Anderson, secretary-treasurer, showed receipts, $42.75; expenditure, $25.10, with balance of $17.65.

Miss Nessie Syme reported for the Happy Workers, Crofton, as follows: Meetings held nearly every Monday with a membership of seven. The circle will have a table at the autumn sale of work at Duncan. The proceeds will be donated for the purchase of towels for the children's ward in the Jubilee hospital, Victoria. Balance on hand was $12; to this $2.10 has been added, and $5.25 spent, leaving a balance of $8.75.

Annie E. Holmes, recording secretary for Duncan, reported for the Scattered circles, so-called, because its members are not confined to one town or county, but are living in various parts of the world. The circle was formed in 1887 by the late Mrs. Maitland-Dougal, the first president of the order in British Columbia, when a few ladies Quamichan and formed themselves into a circle, choosing Mrs. Maitland-Dougal as leader and taking as their text part of the fifth chapter of Galatians. "The fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness and temperance."

At present the society has a membership of 51. The past year has been very busy one, and likewise a successful and happy one. The society has tried to not be self-centred, but to give help and encouragement as opportunity afforded. Meetings have been well attended. Miss Wilson, the president, has been most conscientious in the fulfilment of all the duties attaching to her position. Money has been raised during the year by tea, a bazaar in December, a sacred concert in Lent, and a spring flower show in May. The three last have become annual affairs.

Mrs. Shaw, the provincial president, visited the circle in June last, and Miss McKimney, from India, addressed a meeting in November on behalf of the Zanano mission for women. The society sent a donation of $15 to the mission, and promised to endow a bed in which shall be called the Duncan bed. The society also assisted a poor woman at Calgary by sending her $15 to help defray the cost of medical attendance, and a few lonely women were helped at Christmas time.

The spring flower show, which began in a very small way, with the object of creating and cultivating a love of wild flowers in children, has expanded to such an extent that this year 57 of the children to Cowichan sent an essay, the subject being "The Trees of British Columbia." The display of drawings and paintings by the children was quite a feature of the show this year. The receipts of the show were $105 this year, as against $54 last year. An attempt has been made to interest the townspeople of Duncan in the work of the society, and several of the business men have come forward with offers of help in the great work the society has undertaken, the Convalescent Home.

Two "shut-in" members were added to the list this winter, and the society has kept in touch with them. The financial report of the Scattered circle for the year ending April 30th, showed the following: Cash received, $757.25; expenditure, $718; balance, $39.25.

At the conclusion of the reading of the reports a motion was made that they should be adopted as a whole. Mrs. Watt made a motion which included in a vote of thanks the Victoria circle for their kindly hospitality, the session of St. Andrew's for use of the lecture room for the meetings, Rev. Leslie Clay for conducting opening exercises, Mrs. H. Dallas Helmcken for entertainment at the Empress yesterday afternoon, and the press for attendance at meetings and report of same.

Mrs. Watt's motion carried with an amendment that she too should be included in the vote of thanks for her hospitality. Mrs. Wilson on behalf of the Vancouver Circle of King's Daughters, extended an invitation to the convention to meet there next year. The offer was unanimously accepted.

At the suggestion of Mrs. Watt it was moved that a message of greeting and appreciation should be sent from the convention to Mrs. Dr. Cleland in India, taking note of the good work she is doing there as a medical missionary, and asking that she put herself in touch with the B. C. Order of King's Daughters, of which she is a member. The motion carried.

It was decided to have a full report of the convention printed, copies of which could be sold to members of the different circles at a nominal sum.

Mrs. Hardie presented the financial report of the convention as follows: Cash on hand, $27.05.

The meeting then adjourned.

GILLETT'S PERFUMED LYE

CAUTION.

Put a strong glass on the label and examine it closely every time. Always look for the name "Gillett's."

Like all good articles, which are extensively advertised, Gillett's Lye is frequently and very closely imitated. In some instances the imitators have actually copied directions and other printed matter from our label word for word. Be wise, and refuse to purchase imitation articles for they are never satisfactory.

Insist On Getting Gillett's Lye

and decline to accept anything that looks to be an imitation or that is represented to be "just as good" or "better," or "the same thing." In our experience of over fifty years in business we have never known of an imitation article that has been a success, for imitators are not reliable people. At the best the "just as good" kinds are only trashy imitations, so decline them with thanks every time.

PRINCESS ENA TO CARRY PASSENGERS

Steamer is Being Fitted With Accommodations and May Go On Regular Run.

Steamer Princess Ena is laid up, her crew having been paid off. It is understood that in future she is to carry passengers. Three new lifeboats have been made for her, and passenger accommodation is being arranged. All that is needed is a boiler inspection and a license. The Ena has hitherto carried nothing but freight. She is capable of splashing out something like twelve knots, which is all that some of the other coasting steamers are required to do. She has a large carrying capacity, and it is not improbable that she may be put on one of the regular runs when her accommodation has been made compatible with the duties required of her.

WEEK-END EXCURSIONS TO NEIGHBORING CITIES

Special Rates to Seattle and Vancouver During Month of June.

The excursion tickets to Seattle will be good on Fridays and Saturdays and returning on Sundays while to Vancouver the tickets are good on Saturdays only and returning Sundays. It is expected that these excursions will have a good effect in stimulating travel between the Coast cities.

Pastor of St. Andrew's Catholic Church is Going to Europe.

Rev. Father Laterme, who has been the faithful pastor of St. Andrew's Catholic church for the past twenty-two years, leaves shortly for Europe. All those wishing to contribute to this testimonial of good will, are requested to do so at once. Father Laterme's many friends will doubtless avail themselves of an opportunity of voicing their regret at his departure, and rejoicing that he is to spend his well-earned holiday in his fatherland from which he has been so long a stranger.

—Before two J. P.'s, Messrs. Pearson and McMillan, the charges against Thomas Hlad and Edward Everson, of Quatsino, were heard. The two, who are school trustees, were charged with assaulting Magistrate Nordstrom and Police Officer Sorenson. The evidence went to show that there had been some provocation owing to the meddlesome character of the magistrate and police officer. A technical assault, however, was shown to have taken place and the two trustees were fined $10 each. Steps are now being taken to petition the local government to have Magistrate Nordstrom removed.

EXPENSES OF MINT TO BE CURTAILED

One Hundred Employees at San Francisco May Be Discharged.

(Times Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Cal., June 5.—Consolidation reigns to-day among the 300 employees of the San Francisco mint, as a result of the announcement that official orders have been received from Washington to cut down expenses. Supt. Sweeney said to-day that the only possible means of curtailing expenses would be to cut the mint force, and it is thought that at least 100 of the present employees will feel the official axe.

—Greatest apprehension is felt by the 80 women who are employed in the big government plant. The fact that they are non-voters, they believe, will make them the first subjects for the wholesale decapitation. Among the other employees are men who have been in the mint since the Cleveland administration, and it is suggested that the civil service rule may be subjected to a severe test when the cutting down process begins. It is thought that the cut in the force will be made about July 15th.

—Hon. J. S. Helmcken is to-day receiving the congratulations of his many friends upon attaining his 54th birthday. A scow is being built on Turpel's ways for Captain Goodwin.

Cost of Manufacture. Do you know why we can manufacture news and wrapping paper cheaper in British Columbia than in Eastern Canada or the United States? The answer is plain: We have cheaper wood. Every ton of newspaper requires approximately a cord and a half of four-foot wood in its manufacture. The International Paper Company are now paying $10.14 per cord for wood. Remington group of mills, $14.00; Riverside Paper Company, $11.00; Kimberley-Clark Paper Mills, $11.00; Northern Pulp and Paper Company, $11.50; Gilbert Paper Company, $13.80; Tomahawk Pulp & Paper Company, $12.80; Combined Locks Pulp & Paper Company, $11.25; St. Regis Pulp & Paper Company, $14.00, and others accordingly. Owing to the increased cost and scarcity of pulp wood, the price of newspaper has increased from $36.00 to $50.00 per ton during the last three years, and in order to operate the American mills they were obliged to import in 1908 almost a million cords of wood from Canada, and in addition over $7,000,000 of wood pulp. Pulp wood is now worth from $6.00 to $8.00 per cord in Ontario and Quebec. Owing to the fact that this company has acquired almost 100 square miles of pulp lands at Quatsino Sound, Vancouver Island, we are therefore assured of a permanent supply of wood at not to exceed $2.00 to $4.00 per cord. Who can tell what the price of wood will be in Eastern Canada and the United States within 10 years? At present we are able to manufacture news and wrapping paper from $2.90 to $4.90 per ton cheaper than the Eastern mills, and inside of 10 years we will have an advantage of $10.00 to $12.00 per ton. In commending the stock of this corporation to the general public we do so with the feeling that it is one of the rarest opportunities ever presented in Canada to secure a high class dividend paying stock. There is no question but that it is certain to become tremendously valuable within one year from the opening of the big plant, and we therefore advise every citizen of Vancouver Island to subscribe for a small block, even if it is only to the extent of 100 shares. Who would not now be glad to buy stock at the original price in the big mills of Ontario and Quebec? Inside of two years it will be much more difficult to secure stock in the present mill now under course of erection than it now is to secure the stock of eastern mills. The time to buy the stock of any corporation is six months before a wheel has been turned—not six months afterwards. Suppose you had bought a few thousand shares of Canadian Pacific when it was selling at $2, or Hudson's Bay stock when it was being sold at a low figure, or General Electric when it was peddled at 20, or Alaska Packers when it went begging a while ago at 40. In 1908 the United Box Board & Paper Company made a gross profit of $1,178,001. In the same year the International Paper Company showed a profit of $1,625,518, while the 43 exclusive news mills of the State of Massachusetts showed a profit, according to the United States government report, of $1,824,428. During the same year 23 mills of the State of Michigan made $1,338,456, while the St. Regis Pulp & Paper Company and the Laurentide Pulp & Paper Company each showed a profit of approximately a quarter of a million dollars. No mill is more fortunately situated or prepared to meet the great demands of the future than this company. We have 55,669 acres of the finest pulp timber of British Columbia. We have a tremendous water supply capable of developing from 15,000 to 20,000 h. p. We are right at the threshold of the great Oriental markets which annually import millions of dollars of paper, to which points we are able to secure a rate of from $3.00 to $5.00 per ton compared with a $12.00 to $12.00 rate from Eastern Canada or the United States. The company has been conservatively organized. The books of the company are open daily to the full inspection of the public.

WE NOW OFFER FOR SUBSCRIPTION THE REMAINDER OF THE FIRST ISSUE OF 300,000 PREFERENCE SHARES IN BLOCKS OF 100 SHARES AT $1.00 PER SHARE. Payments: Fifteen Per cent. on Application, Fifteen Per cent. in Thirty Days. Balance, 10 per cent. per month until fully paid. The Preferred Stock is entitled to a cumulative dividend of 7 per cent., payable out of the net profits of the Company before any dividend is paid on the Ordinary Stock, after a like amount has been paid on the Ordinary Stock, both Stocks thereafter participate equally. BIOGRAPH

PRETTY JUNE WEDDING CELEBRATED AT SIDNEY

Captain Slater and Miss Brethour United in Marriage.

A very pretty June wedding was solemnized at the North Saanich Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon, June 2nd, when Miss Edith Brethour, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brethour, was united in marriage with Captain A. Slater, first officer of the Princess May.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was beautifully and becomingly gowned in cream silk voile over taffeta, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a large sheaf bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her cousin, Miss Jessie McLennan, of Salt Spring Island, in a dainty bridesmaid's frock of white mull and carried a bouquet of pink roses. She wore a pretty gold brooch, set with pearls and amethysts, the gift of the groom.

The maids of honor were Misses Catherine and Vivian Brethour, in very pretty dresses of white tulle. They wore rings set with pearls and amethysts, gifts of the groom.

Mr. Alex. Brethour acted as best man.

The marriage service took place beneath a beautiful floral bell, composed of snow-balls, and was performed by the Rev. J. A. Wood.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Beacon Avenue, Sidney, which was handsomely decorated for the occasion with a profusion of the season's flowers.

In the dining room where dainty refreshments were served a most artistic decorative scheme of white and green was carried out with lilies of the valley and narcissi.

Mrs. J. J. White, of Sidney, cousin of the bride, assisted by a gay bevy of young ladies in dainty light colored frocks, served the refreshments.

The bride's travelling costume was a smartly tailored suit of royal blue English tweed with hat to match. The honeymoon will be spent in the Sound cities, after which Captain and Mrs. Slater will make their home in Victoria.

Among the presents received were the following:

Mrs. Henry Brethour, collection of fancy work; Henry Brethour, cheque; Edgar Brethour, cut-glass bon bon dish; Roy Brethour, painting; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. White, silver cake basket; Mr. and Mrs. L. Mrs. Elya Groom, of Seattle, who is well known in Victoria as the composer of some fine musical numbers, among which the best known is perhaps, the Lewis and Clark Exposition march, which was played last year at Tacoma and Seattle, has recently issued the A. Y. P. Exposition march, a tone romance, which is a clever piece of work. A young man, clerking in Michigan, decided to go to Alaska gold fields leaving his sweetheart behind him. After suffering untold hardships he at length strikes it rich and writes to his sweetheart to meet him at the A. Y. P. Exposition. She does so, and they are married and set up their home in Seattle. This story is told in the music.

NOTABLE CONCERT.

Prof. Wickens Will Give High Class Entertainment on Tuesday.

The seventeenth annual concert to be given in the Institute hall on Tuesday evening by the pupils of Prof. E. G. Wickens, will be an unusual and exceptionally good one. There are several new features on the programme. Master Willie Mittelstaedt will make his debut as a solo cellist. Miss Audrey Davies will introduce for the first time her much cherished Colleen Meryn violin. There will also be concertos for two pianos, cornet duets, lullabies trio for violin, cello and piano. One remarkable thing about this entertainment will be rendered without the music desk, which could only be the result of much patience and hard training, especially the latter two.

A large orchestra including four pianos and a beautiful Gothic harp will be in attendance. Those who are fortunate enough to be present will have an opportunity to see what can be done with small children, both in solo and orchestra work.

Miss E. Budd, R. Morrison and P. Gordon has kindly consented to assist in the vocal numbers. The proceeds will go to the furnishing fund of the Y. M. C. A. new building. There is every reason to believe that a very large attendance will be there to greet All tickets must be presented at the door. Those who are taking part are requested to be at the hall on Monday evening not later than 7:45 for the final rehearsal.

The Escape of Lawton Blake
By St. John Bradner.

Lawton Blake held a position that any dweller in the salty town might envy. He sat in a wicker chair, on the terrace of the Hotel Grande Bretagne at Bellagio, looking over the indigo blue waters of the Lake of Como, whose surface was dotted with boats, small and large, the occupants enjoying the cool of an evening that had followed a very hot day. The sun had just set, and the western sky was aflame with a crimson glory. Besides the wicker chair stood a small round table, and on the table rested a cup of black coffee beside a petit verre that contained the green liqueur made by the monks.

As a supplement to these creature comforts of after dinner, Blake was smoking an excellent cigar. He occupied a spot where every prospect pleased, and man is no viler than anywhere else, yet Lawton Blake considered himself rather vile, and the vast cant stare of his eyes showed the pleasing they were not looking at the pleasing prospect. He sat there, if one may put it that way, turned inward, engaged on self inspection.

Although travelling alone, and unacquainted with anyone in the hotel, he had arranged himself as irreproachably as if he had been dining in London, but in a correct costume, bringing consolation to the heart of a young woman of similar masculine attire had no mollifying effect on the mood of the young man. Not that he was so very young, either, when you came to look closely at him. There were crow's feet under the eyes, and a thinness of hair at the temples. He was already on the borderland of middle age. To this disagreeable fact he attributed the persistence of the incident in tormenting him. He had often acted badly before, and had been, as he thought at the time, deeply in love, but he had successfully evaded all after-entanglements, and no evasion had troubled him till this one came.

A pair of wistful eyes, bewilderingly sweet and innocent, haunted him. He saw them whenever he shut his own, and that fair, captivating face, so untouched by any knowledge of the world, that he, a man of the world, had seduced to provide himself a month's amusement. When he saw that what carried him rather without a declaration he had fled without a word of farewell, or a line of explanation, and, as has been said, it was not the first time in his privileged career of self-enjoyment that a quick departure had ended a situation which was becoming serious, but on this occasion the memory of the escapade had survived the time of the escape, which had never been the case before. The unworried maid had caught the man of the world in the very snare which had so palpably enmeshed herself, and so Lawton Blake sitting there by Como's side, accused himself of growing old and senile, for although months had elapsed since he saw the girl, he could not banish her from his thoughts.

His bitter reverie was disturbed by a cordial voice.

"Hello, Lawton! What is a confirmed old bachelor like you doing in this land of the honeymoon?"

"Is this the land of the honeymoon?"

"There's at least a score of them at this hotel. They're all over the place, and an innocent single man like myself cannot take a secluded walk in any direction without disturbing a spooning couple."

"Sit down, George, and tell us about it. I have just arrived."

George Stanforth took a similar chair to that occupied by his friend, and sat down at the same table.

"What's the trouble, Lawton?"

"Trouble? None that I know of."

"Here is your coffee cold, your liqueur untraced, and your cigar gone out. If those are not three signs of trouble, I'm a Dutchman."

Blake laughed unthinkingly, took a sip from his coffee cup, and a taste of the cordial, struck a match, and re-lit his cigar.

"Your signs have vanished, George, my boy."

"No, the coffee's still cold. What's worrying you?"

"Nothing I tell you, I am perfectly happy."

"Oh, I thought the brides had got on."

WHEN DIGESTION FAILS

And you are tortured by pains after eating, headaches, acidity, palpitation, sleeplessness, or constipation, nothing will so soon restore you, and specially to the digestive system as the root and herb extract, Mother Seigel's Syrup. It tones and cleanses the liver and kidneys, clears the stomach of the decayed products of indigestion, renews appetite, makes food nourish you, and thus builds health on good digestion.

TAKE Mother SEIGEL'S SYRUP

"As a former sufferer from indigestion I subscribe my name to the roll of those who have been cured of this miserable complaint through the use of Mother Seigel's Syrup. I had the usual symptoms, such as pains after eating, constipation, headaches, and distended stomach at times, but two bottles of Seigel's Syrup and a few Seigel's Pills restored me to good health."—JOSEPH BENSCHER, Versailles P.O., Berthel Co., P.Q., January 26th, 1900.

"Well when you realised your danger, what did you do?"

"I bolted."

"Of course, but I mean, what excuse did you make?"

"I didn't make any. I simply left."

"And haven't you written to her?"

"No."

"You are a brute. I always arrange a nice, convincing reason for my departure, and sometimes have even had to go so far as to invent a wife in a mad-house, and thus came away with lots of sympathy. And did you get any fearful epistles from the girl?"

"No, as I told you, I've had no letters forwarded, but I don't think she knew where to write. Of course, she might easily have found out, and perhaps a letter awaits me in London."

"Are you going back?"

"Yes, I think so. I'm leaving for London next week."

"I mean are you going back to that secluded spot in the wilderness where the girl lives, and where Sir Edward Whatyoucallum, the rejected, seeketh whom he may devour?"

"We—that's a question. I've been putting to myself, and, as yet, I have received no answer."

"My dear boy, if you're as far gone as that, you're doomed. Better come on with me to Venice."

"Tomorrow, if you like."

"I'll think about it, and let you know in the morning."

"Be wise in time, my friend, and keep away from the vicinity of those fascinating eyes. I've been here a week, and I'm sick of the place. This eternal honeymooning, in getting on my nerves. Of course, I say to them in my mind, this billing and cooing is all right enough on the banks of Como, but you will tell me to get back to the hard realities of London, then Heaven help you! I must go now and pack. Better make up your mind to-night, Lawton."

Blake looked up at the full moon, which was flooding the landscape with light, and scattering a glittering shower of diamonds on the surface of the lake.

"What's the number of your room?"

"140."

"Very well, I'll take a stroll down the lake, think it over, and look you up before I turn in."

"Right you are, old chap. You'll be the only unmarried man on the road, and I fear the sight of so much happiness looking about may send a man in your imbecile frame of mind to that dangerous rural district, but I hope to talk sufficient common-sense to you after you knock at the door of 140, to start you south-east instead of north-west. See you later."

After his friend had departed, Blake lit a fresh cigar, and went out upon the highway. The moon was glorious, and as Stanforth had predicted, he met many people musingly about absorbed in each other. One pair was sitting on a bench, and as he approached, he heard the lady say:

"Yes, it is getting a bit chilly, or it seems so after the heat of the day."

"But I don't wish to go in yet; we have nothing like this moonlight in England. So, dear, if you will get me a wrap, I'll put it on. Take the first shawl that comes to hand. Anything will do."

The man rose alertly, and rushed toward the hotel. There seemed something familiar about him as he passed Lawton Blake, but the moon was in Blake's face and on the other's back, as he sped away, and the man with a problem in his mind did not recognise him. But the moon beamed full in his face as he approached the lady, who suddenly stood up with what seemed to be a little cry of dismay, and when he looked at her—

"Oh, Mr. Blake!" she cried clasping her hands.

"You!" he said in astonishment.

"You!"

For a moment he thought of turning and making for the hotel, as her husband was doing.

"Oh," cried the lady, "won't you even speak to me? The thought of you has often intruded on my happiness. I treated you shamefully—shamefully, and, oh, Mr. Blake, when you saw what I was doing, you went away without a word of reproach."

"Reproach!" stammered Blake. "There was no thought of reproach in my mind regarding you."

"No, I am sure of it. I have told my husband over and over and over again that you are one of the noblest men I ever met, and I believe even now he is only half convinced that I really cared nothing about you. But you see, I was desperately in love with Ned. We had known each other since we were children, and he is so complacent that he took everything for granted. We were drifting along, and drifting along, until I simply had to do something. He always hated men from town, and when I saw you that night at the ball, I said to myself: 'Well, it won't hurt him,' that is meaning you, and it may make Ned jealous, which it did. But when I saw that I had hurt you so deeply, and you left without a word, even of condemnation—oh, I should have been glad if you had told me what you thought of me, no matter how harsh your language was. But my only excuse is that I was so deeply in love. Won't you forgive me, Mr. Blake?"

Lawton Blake drew a deep sigh.

"I suppose I must now call you Lady Lucas. Well, Lady Lucas, I forgive you." With that he turned and walked slowly back, and, entering the hotel, knocked at room 140.

"George," he cried, "I am going with you to Venice in the morning."

"Good boy," was the reply, "that is a sensible decision. Keep away from her, and you'll soon forget her."

"Yes, I suppose I shall," agreed Blake, with a sigh.

Robin Hood Flour, Canada's Newest Greatest Flour, Continues to Grow in the User's Favor

"ROBIN HOOD FLOUR" started out well. It made an immediate impression by its "goodness," by the amount of bread it makes in comparison with other flours, and by the sweet, mealy flavor of the loaves made from it.

When you are using add more water than with the flours you formerly bought. Then note the result. You get more bread, of more nutritious quality.

We are sending our staff of "Robin Hood" girls to every home in Victoria to let you know something about this wonderful, satisfying flour, to tell you why it has been so sensationally successful, and to get your order for a trial bag. Be sure and give them an order. It will prove its value. And Robin Hood Flour is sold under a positive guarantee. Your money back if not satisfied after two fair trials.

Every woman in Victoria ought to be using ROBIN HOOD FLOUR now. If you haven't tried it start now. Order a bag the next time you buy flour. You will certainly be delighted with it. And remember that "this DIFFERENT flour" is always guaranteed.

Made of Saskatchewan's Best Wheat "Robin Hood Flour" is in Every Way a Superior Flour

BEST SUMMER MATTING DAINY CURTAINS

NOTHING EQUALS FIBER MATTING

MAY BE MADE FROM THESE

THERE is no floor covering so cool, clean and altogether delightful as this Fiber Matting. Don't confuse it with the China and Jap matting and their disagreeable odors. Fiber matting is so superior to these that it is rapidly displacing them.

This matting is sewn like carpet and is much more attractive in design than any other matting. It may be washed and it is also reversible, giving double service. The merits, however, can better be shown in the materials itself, so come in and see it. Priced at, per yard—

We also have some excellent squares in this same material—Art Designs.

DO YOU NEED NEW BLINDS?

IF YOU have a new house that requires new blinds or an old one that contains some dilapidated window shades you should let us figure on the job. We believe that we can save you money.

We don't propose to sell you blinds at less than any other maker offers them, but we claim to put better value into every blind we turn out and when you get superior quality at the same price you are saving.

We offer you much choice in the way of materials—Opagues, Lancasters and Scotch Hollands. In Opagues nothing but the very best hand-made oil opaque is used. In the Scotch Hollands we have some dainty materials in creams and greens which have to be seen to be properly appreciated—description would be of little use.

In rollers we use nothing but the famous Hartshorn and use no nails—blind cannot pull off. Let us give you an estimate on this work.

The Famous Angle Lamp

Never smokes or smells whether burned at full height or turned low like gas. It is not merely an ordinary lamp improved. It is an entirely new method of oil lighting, for simplicity and convenience of operation it is the closest rival of gas or electricity. For splendid reading light and artistic general illumination it is the superior of either. The angle at which the flame burns throws the best light from its most brilliant surface directly downward. The effect of the light is doubled, producing a reading light with which no other system can even compare. Yet the Angle Lamp is the most economical of all lighting methods. Costs less to burn than even the ordinary lamp—fully 1/2 less. But call and see it or write us for full description booklet.

Suburban South Saanich

A RESIDENTIAL PARADISE.

"Are you loaded?"
"Aye."
"Then rush. We've only a minute to catch our car."
Thus the scribbler and the photographer greeted each other one morning this week in the office of the Times. The car was caught and the expedition was under way. No, not a hunting expedition. The loaded weapon was nothing more dangerous than a camera; the objects of the chase were nothing more elusive than the thousand delectable sights and scenes of the neighboring municipality of South Saanich.

Every expedition must have its guide. Ours was awaiting us at the terminus of the Gorge car line. There we left the confines of the city and placed ourselves under the energetic and competent direction of Mr. C. B. Jones, representative of ward 4 in the South Saanich council.

The initial stage of our itinerary was by ferry, with Mr. Jones at the oar. Embarking from the gayly festooned Japanese float at the Gorge park, we rippled over the placid waters of the Arm and entered the bounds of ward four, South Saanich. The rising ground before us, bathed in the warm sunshine of a perfect June morning, was the first objective of our guide.

"Ward Four," said Mr. Jones, "is above all a residential neighborhood."

This was a surprise. Not a fruit-growing district? Not the ideal location for the vegetable gardener or the poultry fancier? Yes, it was all these; but above all, it was a residential neighborhood. This was the contention of Mr. Jones, and this contention he proceeded to prove.

The first place visited was that lights, or the revels of merry-makers in the park across the water, enliven its outlook, but encroach not at all on its privacy. It is in the country, but hourly is reminded of its proximity to the city. It is surrounded by fields, but the gong of the street car and small fruit flourish in their exposure to the southern sun. Space is reserved beneath ancient trees for lawns and flowers. Within its enclosure at the rear is a thriving colony of fowls. Delicacies for the table gain double zest when they are home grown. That zest sisting of C. F. Beaven, A. G. Sar-gison and W. Allen. The old wooden building, long occupied as a hotel, will be removed within a few months and its license will be revoked. Under these improved conditions the property offers such inducements as a site for other vacant sites offering every inducement the suburbanite could ask—an outlook over a calm and much-frequented stretch of water, productive soil, nearness to school, convenient means of reaching the city.

Beyond the Craigflower bridge graduation 12345 123456 66666 gratulating themselves on their happy choice. Two of these homes, belonging to Mr. Steedman and Mr. C. B. Jones, near neighbors on Portage Inlet, were visited next. Seldom have either the scribbler or the artist approached a place with feelings of keener admiration, nor left one with an emotion of more sincere envy. Embowered among primeval trees, through which they look over an arm of the sea famed alike for boating, for bathing, or for scenic attractions, their situation is unique. Two years ago the ground on which they stand was unbroken. To-day they lack no touch of home comforts. The farthest famed summer resorts of the East, at the height of their charms, have no natural attractions superior to those of this wooded shore. Life, however, in an eastern summer resort is endurable for only a few months of the year; here no rigors of winter put a period to the full enjoyment of life in the open. It requires no special gift of prophecy to foresee the day when the shore line of Portage Inlet will connect an unbroken succession of homes where life is enjoyed to the full.

Recent transfers of property in this neighborhood indicate that its residential advantages are meeting with appreciation. A part of the Stromness sub-division has been sold to Mr. Humphreys, who intends to build soon. Captain

Surrounding the house is a three-acre plot laid out to practical, as well as artistic advantage. Strawberries and every kind of Gitchrist, of the Princess Victoria, has purchased the property, consisting of a house and five acres, owned by Mr. Shires. T. R. Blackwood and Chas. Thomas are two others who are preparing to build on the Burnside road in this neighborhood. Land hereabouts is available at prices ranging up from $150 an acre. Waterfront lots command from $400 to $500 an acre.

Strawberry Vale, reached from the city by the Burnside road, is such a spot as can be found nowhere outside of Vancouver Island. You will look in vain for a road that runs half a mile in a straight line, or that crosses another road at right angles. Every fence has ideas of its own in regard to direction. The points of the compass, rectangular, squares, geometrical figures—all are ignored in the topography of Strawberry Vale. The result is as individual as it is appealing. Seen from a highway, which leads unerringly from view point to view point of greatest vantage, the valley is a series of vistas, each resplendent at this time of the year in nature's most brilliant hues, each set in frames of rugged intervening woodland. The result stage where it may be announced that Strawberry Vale, Royal Oak, Gordon Head and Cedar Hill will shortly be connected by a telephone system with a local exchange. It is proposed to levy a rate of $1.50 a month for party lines with an additional charge of ten cents a call for messages to Victoria.

The theory of Mr. Jones that the ward he represents is first of all a residential district of unique advantages had already been abundantly proved, yet as we bowled along behind a speedy black, a lurking belief remained that we were in the heart of a glorious fruit country, as well. That belief was soon to be many times confirmed. On one hand was a ten-acre field set out with last year's seedlings; on the other a matured orchard in which was one tree that produced last year $25 worth of cherries.

Our next halt, at the Layritz Nursery, was productive of abundant additional confirmation. This, the largest nursery in the province, is situated on the Carey road. It consists of forty acres of rolling land, nearly all of which is under cultivation. Mr. Richard Layritz is the genial, energetic and experienced proprietor. Under panoramic view. It is the exception that proves the rule. Small holdings, ensuring somewhat dense settlement, will be the rule in Ward Five as in Ward Four.

A drive along the West Saanich road drew renewed attention to the admirable conditions prevailing on every important highway throughout the municipality. The roadbed everywhere would be creditable on a city street. Even were the views they afford much less beautiful, such roads would invite travel through the sheer pleasure of smooth and comfortable motion.

One of the well known properties on the West Saanich road is the Westwood Farm. It is on this the poultry ranch of Mr. B. G. Haigh is situated. No more interesting spot could attract a visitor. Hundreds of hens dot the large area enclosed for a run. These are nearly all White Leghorns, kept here on account of their superior laying qualities. The average returns from his flock Mr. Haigh finds to be 17 eggs per hen per month. The prices realized range from 60 cents a dozen during December and November to 25 cents during the latter half of February. The present price is 30 cents. Grain is fed only once a day, in the evening. The morning meal consists of chopped clover, bran, barley meal and shorts, moistened to a crumbling consistency with milk. The cost of such a diet is not great. Mr. Haigh did by the prices it brings in the real estate market. Cleared land in this locality commands as high as $500 an acre. No one should call this price exorbitant till he has thoroughly investigated the possibilities of such land in producing revenue. From a typical orchard in this vicinity we gleaned some informing particulars.

Overlooking Elk lake, whose vapors have an important influence in equalizing the temperature thereabouts, is "Eden Garden," the fruit farm of W. D. Auckland. Apple, cherry, plum, apricot, peach and quince are the principal trees noted here, together with an abundance of small fruits of every variety. Fruit growing with Mr. Auckland is a strictly commercial proposition and in the light of that fact the results he has achieved have especial significance.

Our illustration shows two cherry trees of the Royal Ann variety. These bear from 300 to 400 pounds each in a season. At the market price of 10 cents a pound the income from these two trees alone is about $75 a year. One acre will give space for 60 trees of this size without crowding. When it is considered that the supply of cherries in the local market is never equal to the de-

The attractions of this resort will meet with due appreciation only when the promised electric railway shall have made it as easily accessible to the city as Oak Bay now is. That time can not be far distant.

BRIDGE AND GOLF.

It has often been remarked how the games of bridge and golf seem to go together. A man who is keen on the one game is almost certain to be keen on the other. Keeness, however, does not necessarily carry proficiency with it, as the following anecdote will illustrate.

A well-known bridge player, staying in the country with a party of golf enthusiasts, was asked whether he played golf. He said, "Yes, I am very fond of it," and he was promptly challenged to take part in a foursome on the golf links. The challenge was accepted and a match was arranged for the next day, a considerable amount of money being betted on it.

Arrived on the scene of action, our friend's partner drove a good ball from the first tee, leaving him with a good lie for the second stroke. The proper club, a brassie, was handed to him. He addressed the ball in great style, squared his shoulders, and smote an almighty smite, but alas! he missed the ball altogether, and cut about a foot and a half of turf out of the ground. His partner, grievously disappointed, gazed at him, more in sorrow than in anger, and said, quietly, "Having no spade, partner?"—W. Dalton in the June Strand Magazine.

THE RESIDENCE OF R. S. THOMPSON.

is one that for pastoral beauty cannot well be surpassed, yet the most hardheaded, practical wisdom could not have devised a topographical scheme more suited to the locality. The district is one pre-eminently adapted for small holdings. Fruit farms or home-steads of three, five or ten acres are better to conform to nature's lines of hill, crest or valley, or slope, than to the more unbending dictates of the surveyor's transit. The present population of Ward Four may reasonably be estimated at 1,200 souls. To multiply that population at least five times nothing more is required than that the outside world shall be made to know the conditions of life prevailing there. To spread abroad a knowledge of the whole municipality, its resources, its climate, its inducements both to the retiring and to the enterprising, is the enlightened aim of the present council.

A projected improvement in which Mr. Jones has taken a keen interest is the extension of the lines of the B. C. Telephone company to serve various communities throughout South Saanich. Negotiations have now reached a his guidance we visited various sections of the nursery. Here were 203,000 apple seedlings in various stages of growth. There were 75,000 peach trees striking temporary roots into the soil. Fruit trees, shade trees, ornamental trees; shrubs, evergreen and deciduous; flowering plants, vines, creepers—all are here bearing mute but eloquent testimony to favoring conditions of soil and climate.

Among the ornamental trees which form one of the most striking exhibits of the nursery, none is more distinctive than a beautiful African cedar. Technically an evergreen, it is literally a nevergreen; for its foliage is throughout of a pale bluish shade that makes it a strong factor in securing variety and contrast in landscape gardening.

Mr. Layritz has other nurseries in British Columbia, one at Gordon Head and two on the mainland. That a gardener of such wide experience, in command of ample resources, should choose the Carey Road as the location of his principal enterprise is the best possible proof of the fruit-growing of South Saanich is represented by Councillor Mannix. Mr. Mannix is a type of the men who, after enduring the rigors of pioneer life in Manitoba, seek a more restful haven for their declining years, and find their heart's desire in the equable climate and pastoral scenes of Vancouver Island. Like many another who has helped build up the prairie province, he came west over the old Dawson trail with Wolesley's first expedition, and remained, after helping subdue the rebels, to wrest a tardier victory from more persistent foes. Material success rewarded his long struggle against the hard conditions of frontier life. Mr. Mannix has earned the right to his present comfortable retirement, but rest and inactivity are not synonymous terms to him. His best energies are devoted to forwarding the public interests of the community he represents.

Under the guidance of Mr. Mannix the first place visited was the Rithet estate at Royal Oak. An immense farm of more than 1,000 acres devoted to grazing and mixed farming, its features are brought out in the accompanying panoramic view. It is the exception that proves the rule. Small holdings, ensuring somewhat dense settlement, will be the rule in Ward Five as in Ward Four.

A drive along the West Saanich road drew renewed attention to the admirable conditions prevailing on every important highway throughout the municipality. not state his average net returns per hen, but an estimate can easily be made from the figures given. The cost of feed need not be reckoned, for the prices realized from the sale of cockerels for market balances the cost of feeding the whole flock. From these facts it can be deduced that it is reasonable to expect a profit of $4 per hen per year under careful and experienced management. Many persons wholly inexperienced have tried poultry raising as a business and have so signally failed that others have been discouraged from venturing into this field of enterprise. Undoubtedly, however, the man of small capital who either knows his business thoroughly or is willing to learn, can, with the prices ruling in Victoria markets, make a success of poultry raising in the districts adjoining the city.

One condition that has deterred some intending investors from engaging in this industry has been the prevailing rather stiff prices for farm lands near the city. To Westwood Farm this condition cannot be said to apply. Land quite suitable for a chicken ranch, only six miles from town, is available here at the low rate of $40 an acre. Other land on the same property, suitable for fruit growing or mixed farming, can be had of the agents, Messrs. Swinerton mand, it is easy to see that orchard land at $500 an acre looks like a profitable investment. As to the quality of the Royal Ann, we must accept the verdict of our guide, who claims to have disposed of many bushels of cherries in his day.

"I thought," said he, "I knew the flavor of a cherry till I bit into one of those Royal Anns, and as for size—well, never before did I see a cherry that I had to take in two bites."

Prunes form another very profitable product of this orchard. The greater part of the crop is shipped in barrels to Vancouver, where it finds a ready market. If a prune drying plant of sufficient capacity were established in Victoria, not only would an impetus be given to production, but it is believed, the enterprise would prove immediately and permanently profitable.

An asset of Ward Five which is the boast of its people is the beach at Cordova Bay. A recreation ground has been set aside here by the council which will soon be fenced, laid out in walks and adorned with ornamental trees.

ECZEMA A GERM DISEASE.

Myriads of Microscopic Animals Infest the Skin of the Sufferer.

When the skin of an eczema sufferer itches and burns in untold agony, do you know what is going on within the pores of that skin?

Myriads of microscopic animals are gnawing at the flesh, breaking down the fine cells and causing festers, thick scales and that terrible itch. The germs multiply faster than Nature can throw them off.

Now, there is only one way to get rid of these germs—they must be killed in their lodging places. Dosing the stomach or trying to cure the blood will not, of course, kill the germs, and that is why all the blood remedies fail in eczema; that is also why salves which do not penetrate can do no permanent good.

Ordinary oil of wintergreen properly compounded in liquid form will penetrate the pores of the skin and kill the eczema germs. If properly mixed with thymol, glycerine and other ingredients (as in D.D.D. Prescription) this wash will build up the tissue of the skin and promote its healthy growth, giving Nature a chance, while killing the germs faster than they can multiply.

SPLENDID FIELD FOR YOUNG MEN

CHANCELLOR BURWASH ON VANCOUVER ISLAND

Should Be Manufacturing Centre—University Matters Discussed by Expert.

I do not know any place where a young man could go with a more hopeful future than to come to Vancouver Island," said Rev. Dr. Burwash, chancellor of Victoria University, Toronto, in the course of a chat with a Times representative yesterday.

Chancellor Burwash, accompanied by Mrs. Burwash, is spending the summer on the Pacific coast. He is an enthusiastic admirer of British Columbia and a believer in the future before it and the Yukon. His belief is so far shared by his four sons that all are settled in the west, two in this province and two in the Yukon. After spending some time in Vancouver the chancellor and his wife will go north to spend some time with their sons in Dawson. Discussing their stay here Dr. Burwash said:

"We have been all over the city, about its environs, out to Goldstream and up the islands and have delighted with all we have seen. Victoria is a city of gardens. A thing that strikes one from the crowded cities of the east is the fact that the homes here are set in gardens, with lots of trees and flowers about. The home architecture is different, too, from what one is accustomed to. The wealth of foliage is simply magnificent and the flora is quite old-country with its broom, rhododendron, primroses, bluebells, laurel, ivy, cypress and yew. The landscapes are thoroughly artistic."

Of the business and industrial possibilities of Vancouver Island Dr. Burwash was very optimistic. Said he:

"This city and island has everything to make it the forefront of the commercial life of the Dominion. You have nearly half the world's population facing you across the Pacific for commercial intercourse. You have unbounded resources in coal and iron and timber. You have all the best harbors on the Pacific with the single exception of Seattle. I do not suppose there is a finer harbor than Esquimalt and the Royal Roads. Victoria has an excellent harbor; there are several on the West Coast and others on the east side. You have an unexcelled climate, and for the food of an immense population you have not only the rich agricultural lands of this province, but the vast prairies. Just at the present time, if you could have a firm like the Furness company transplant their shipbuilding trade of the whole Pacific ocean."

The University Site.

Chancellor Burwash, speaking of the university plans of the province, said that as far as he had learned of them there was every likelihood of the early establishment in British Columbia of an institution for higher education, which would take a worthy place with its elder sisters. He applauded the decision arrived at by the government, on the suggestion of Victoria, to leave the choice of a site to a commission of university heads. The institution should be placed, he said, where it would be best for the interests of the whole province, from every point of view, to have it. He instanced the case of the university of which he is head, in illustration of the importance to such an institution of being properly located. When Victoria was being established a strong argument was put up for Toronto, the capital of Upper Canada, as the place for it, but Cobourg was chosen. Half a century later it was found that old Elder Metcalfe had been right after all, and a change was made. In the twenty years which have elapsed since then the number of students has grown from 125 to 560, and the value of the college endowments from $200,000 to $1,250,000, a marked contest to the record of fifty years in the little Northumberland county town.

"In your university the school of practical science, as they call it in Toronto, will be without doubt the main feature," said Chancellor Burwash. "It will have to pay particular attention to the needs of the province in the matter of the mining industry and manufacturing. The country will more and more demand men who understand mining in all its branches, smelting, shipbuilding, railway construction, bridge-building and all kinds of industrial projects. Your university must make ample provision for the training of these men. At the same time, of course, it must not neglect the aesthetic side, and must not only have a strong arts faculty but educate the doctors and lawyers and teachers of the future B. C. Affiliated with the university will be theological colleges such as the one our own church has in New Westminster and the one the Presbyterians have just established in Vancouver."

Methodism Strong.

Dr. Burwash is greatly pleased with the state of the Methodist church in the province generally and in Victoria. He has a somewhat personal interest in the history of Methodism in British Columbia, inasmuch as the veteran Dr. Robson, who celebrated the jubilee of his pastorate here a short time ago, was a class-mate of his in college. Dr. Robson came out from Ontario with three companions, Dr. Evans, Rev. Arthur Browning and Mr. White. A brother of Dr. Evans, who came out with him from Lincolnshire to Ontario in 1834, was one of those of whom Earl Dufferin said: "There is many a man who has neither tomb nor monument in Westminster Abbey who has done more for humanity than those who have." He it was who originated the alphabet now in general use by the Indians of the northwest, and which can be learned by them in half a day.

The chancellor found local Methodism strong and vigorous, the pastors earnest and hardworking, and the people full of zeal. Metropolitan church, he

NEW BATTLESHIPS.

Great Advance Made in Armaments of Dreadnoughts.

Engineering recently gave some interesting particulars on the armament of the new Dreadnoughts. The designs, which have been prepared by Sir Philip Watts, K. C. B., director of naval construction, are for a battleship with ten 12-inch guns, each of 50 calibres in length, and capable of developing a muzzle energy of about 47,000 foot-tons. In addition to this increase power per weapon, all the ten 12-inch guns in the new ships may be fired on either broadside. For this purpose the deck erections have been reduced to the minimum, and two pairs of guns placed in the centre of the ship in barbettes on each wing, but arranged in echelon, can sweep through almost a complete circle and fire on port or starboard sides. The other three pairs of guns will be mounted in barbettes in the centre line, one barrette being forward and two barbettes aft. In one of the latter the guns will be carried at a high elevation. In the United States latest ships the ten primary guns can also be fired on either broadside, but all of the guns are placed in the centre line. This has the disadvantage, as compared with the disposition of the guns in the new British ships, that the bow and stern fire is considerably reduced, owing to there being no guns on the wings. Moreover, the United States system makes it difficult to train all of the guns at an acute angle to the fore and aft line of the ship.

The new vessels are to be fitted with turbines to develop a speed of 21 knots, which will enable them to take their place in the fleet with Dreadnoughts of corresponding speed.

The foundation of all wealth is land. A glance at the moneyed men of this city will show you that those who have attained wealth are the men who have put their savings into real property. It has been and always will be the safest and surest investment for the careful and prudent man.

Practical Considerations

This property is absolutely perfect—healthy, high and dry. The soil is good. City water is laid on the property. Arrangements are now being made for sewers, sidewalks and graded streets. The Cook street car line runs right past the lots.

Building restrictions have been put on every lot.

LOOKING OVER BLOCKS 3 AND 4, FROM ROSS STREET.

Aesthetic Considerations

The subdivision has been laid out in artistic style, with beautiful crescents. All streets have rounded corners. Every lot commands a magnificent southern view across the Straits of Fuca towards the distant Olympic Range. Beautiful groves of shrubs and trees adorn the property, and adjacent and easily accessible is the only clean bathing beach near the city, viz., Foul Bay.

Sunday School Lesson

(Copyrighted by Rev. T. S. Lincoln.)

June 13th, 1909. Heroes of Faith, Heb. xii:1-40. Golden Text.—Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen, Heb. xii:1.

Verses 1-3.—In what respect are faith and hope similar? If a desirable thing is possessed by faith, does that give as much, or similar satisfaction, as the possession of the thing itself? What is the ground of our faith, that the words were framed by the word of God?

Why do we admire the men of faith of past years? Verse 4.—Abel had a truly religious nature; now was this nature the result of his faith, or was his faith the result of his nature?

Does this record mean that Enoch's translation was directly caused by a specific act of faith, or that his general life of faith made him such a good man that God translated him without death? YERSE 6.—FAITH IS SOMETIMES BASED UPON OUTWARD EVIDENCE; SOMETIMES UPON PERSONAL REVELATION; SOMETIMES UPON INTUITION, AND SOMETIMES UPON COMPOSITE GROUNDS: WILAY MORAL OR SPIRITUAL QUALITIES. THEREFORE, ARE NECESSARY FOR BECOMING A MAN OF FAITH? (THIS QUESTION MUST BE ANSWERED IN WRITING BY MEMBERS OF THE CLUB.)

Why is faith necessary in order to please God? Verse 7.—What was Noah's faith based upon, and wherein was his faith meritorious? Verses 8-12.—What was the difference, if any, between Abraham's faith and that of the Pilgrim fathers, when they left the old country for the American land of promise?

I take it that Abraham, and the Pilgrim fathers, while in communion with God, felt a drawing to go to the rich country in the distance about which they had heard; that they took this drawing to be the voice of God; and in this faith they started out; what evidence is there that their faith was true, and that such faith is always dependable? Verses 13-19.—Why is it that all nations and peoples, in all time, so far as we have any record, believe in, and "desire a better country, that is an heavenly"?

Verses 15-18.—Give from memory the account of Abraham offering up his son Isaac. What is the particular virtue, in Abraham obeying God in the matter of offering up Isaac? Would it be a virtue or a vice in these days, if any man should do the same thing as Abraham did? Verses 20-31.—Suppose the persons mentioned in these wonderful verses, Jacob, Joseph, Moses and Rahab, had been lacking faith in God, in these critical moments of their lives, what would have been the difference in the results? Does faith in God always make the present happy, and picture in glowing colors the future? Verses 32-40.—Have men distinguished for their faith always been noted for their goodness? This is a thrilling account of the exploits of the man of faith; give me an account of the achievements of men noted for their lack of faith.

Lesson for Sunday, June 20th, 1909. Endeavorers Hear FATHER OF MOVEMENT. The delegates from Victoria to the Provincial Christian Endeavor Convention, held this week in New Westminister, report having had a very pleasant and successful time.

OFFICERS OPPOSED TO CHANGING CORPS

Fifth Regiment They Think Should Remain Garrison Artillery.

The officers of the Fifth Regiment do not take kindly to the suggestion that has been made that it would be better to alter the corps to one of infantry instead of garrison artillery. The views of Col. Hall and the senior officers seems to be about as follows:

The question of the character of a corps is usually determined with some regard to the locality and its most suitable place in a general scheme of defence, and not with regard to the special taste of a few individuals. It happens that the primary requirements of this locality are artillery, if possible more than we have now, such infantry as might be required for outpost duty being supplied from the Mainland.

There are, no doubt, some who would prefer the comparatively simple and more spectacular study of infantry drill, skirmishing, etc., to the heavier though fascinating study of infantry guns, ranging, shell composition and explosives, but the proof of a pudding is in the eating, and as a matter of fact since the regiment has had guns mounted in the drill hall on which to learn the preliminary work recruiting has increased considerably, and all ranks are up to within fifteen of full strength, or more than they have ever been before.

As to the question of making the annual training continuous instead of merely in the evenings, few officers will disagree with the principle, but there is the question of the employers of labor. The matter is in their hands, and they cannot afford to have men lose their jobs through carrying out their militia training.

WILL PETITION FOR NEW SCHOOL

Residents of Clayoquot to Urge Government to Take Action.

(Special to the Times).

Clayoquot, June 3.—Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Gordon, school inspector, was opposed to a school district for Clayoquot after his visit last fall, the settlers are persistent in their demand. At a public meeting held last Saturday night it was decided to again lay the matter before the board of education and ask them to take action. The present school building is entirely inadequate for the number of pupils. The settlers feel that the extra assessment of taxes would be trivial compared with the benefit a larger and more sanitary school would be to both pupils and teachers.

A. McGaffey, secretary of the Vancouver Island Development League, is making a flying visit along the west coast. He will spend a day each in Clayoquot, Uclulet and Alberni, and address meetings in each place.

On Friday the Princess Ena called at Clayoquot on her way to Kyauquot. She brought up powder for Mr. Daubley and a boiler and laundry outfit for the Christie Industrial school. Father Maurus intends installing a steam laundry at the school.

Mr. Pollock, a light-keeper at Leonard Island, is leaving on this boat for a two weeks' vacation. He will visit his wife and daughter at Nanaimo.

The government agent, Mr. Rayson, has promised to have one side of good road built this summer, extending through Tofino towards Long Beach. This will be welcomed by the residents.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McDonald celebrated their third wedding anniversary on Tuesday night. They gave a dance invitation to have one side of good road built through Tofino towards Long Beach. This will be welcomed by the residents.

Refreshments were served about midnight, after which Mr. J. McKenna presented Mr. and Mrs. McDonald with a handsome leather suit case as a slight token of esteem of their many friends in the district.

BRONCHITIS

Colds, Coughs, Catarrh and Throat Trouble.

Every sufferer from coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all throat and chest ailments needs a soothing, healing medicine, which goes direct to the breathing organs in the chest and lungs, attacks the trouble at its source disperses the germs of disease, and cures the ailment thoroughly. And this medicine is "Catarrhoxone."

The germ-killing balsamic vapor mixes with the breath, descends through the throat, down the bronchial tubes, and finally reaches the deepest air cells in the lungs. All parts are soothed with rich, pure, medicinal essences, whereas if a liquid or tablet remedy were used the affected parts could not be reached, and harm would result through burning the stomach with drugs.

A Breathable "Direct" Medicine. No medicine brings such prompt relief, exerts such an invigorating influence, or so thoroughly and speedily cures throat troubles as "Catarrhoxone." Doctors, hospitals, sanatoriums—all say that for those who suffer from changeable weather, for those who are predisposed to catarrh, lung trouble, deafness, or bronchitis, no treatment is so indispensable as "Catarrhoxone."

For certain cure, for relief in an hour, use Catarrhoxone, the only direct, breathable medicine. Two months' treatment, guaranteed, price $1; smaller size, 50c; at all druggists, or the Catarrhoxone Company, Kingston, Ont.

MURDER AT REGINA.

John Sheffron Tells of Finding of Body of Charles Morris.

Regina, June 5.—Interesting light was thrown on the circumstances surrounding the murder of Charles Morris at the trial to-day when John Sheffron was on the stand. He told of buying a horse from Ernest Morris, the accused, for $425. It was this horse that which is supposed to have furnished a motive for the murder. Ernest Morris being alleged to have sold the animal belonging to his brother, Sheffron also deposed to having been awakened on the morning of the murder at 1:30 by the prisoner who slept that night with him. Next morning they heard of the fire, and witness told the prisoner, who made no comment. They went together to the scene of the tragedy, and witness said it was impossible to recognize the body of the murdered man as that of Charles Morris. He also deposed to prisoner's horse having one shoe off, as alleged by witness Kin-kade.

LAW AS TO YOUNG MISERS.

The Paris courts decree that a father cannot legally oppose his daughter's marriage on the ground that he knows the youth man to be a miser.

OWE DUES TO CLUB.

Women Members Will Be Dropped From Roll if They Fail to Pay Arrears.

Washington, June 4.—A great scurrying of women members of the Congressional Club, among them Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, daughter of Col. Roosevelt, began yesterday when the white light of publicity revealed that they severally owed dues to the club. The club is composed of wives and daughters of the House of Representatives and occupies an exclusive field in the social life of the nation's capital.

Incidentally, an inquiry is afoot on the part of the club officers to ascertain how the news transpired that each delinquent owed $25 for the present year.

"It is a shame," declared Miss Wood, treasurer of the club, "that the fact became public. Undoubtedly the matter slipped Mrs. Longworth's mind; I shall send another bill to-night, and I have no doubt she will pay her bill at once."

When the treasurer reported at a recent meeting that many members were in arrears, a lively discussion followed, and the club committee resolved that members should be requested to pay, and if they failed to do so, should be dropped from the club forthwith.

Edmund Gardiner is playing to excellent houses this week in "A Night Out." The comedy is certainly a popular one and in Charles Vernon, the new comedian, the management has one who is taking immensely and winning the hearts of all the patrons. To-night the play will be presented for the last time.

Next week will see "Sweet Laverne" by Arthur Pinero. In this beautiful play Mr. Gardiner will take a leading part himself. The comedy is a bright one second to none of those that have been presented by the company so far. The plot abounds in laughable situations. Mistakes are occurring all through in connection with love affairs and the audience is kept on the qui vive.

Patrons of the theatre will next week have the opportunity of seeing one of the most enjoyable plays that has ever been put on the boards here.

New Grand Theatre.

For race week a special bill is coming to Victoria for the New Grand Theatre, and the programme will open with a breezy comedy entitled, "The Mixer and the Mixer," performed by those eccentric comedians, Frank V. Seymour and Emma Hall. In which the situations are ludicrous without being entirely impossible, and the pair of artists throw themselves with considerable vim into their parts. The man is grotesque in comedy costume and is sure to prove a winner.

The best bet of the performance will be the Leo Cooper company, in the intense and pathetic playlet, "The Price of Power." It will carry its moral and lesson. Leo Cooper has long been recognized as one of the most popular actors on the Pacific coast, having played for seven consecutive years at the Alcazar theatre, San Francisco. The condensation of an immense amount of pathos and tragedy is in the act, in which he will be assisted by the following:

PUBLIC GATHERINGS
AT THE SEATTLE FAIR
Every Facility Will Be Afforded for Conventions and Other Assemblies.

Seattle, Wash., June 3.—Exceptionally extensive preparations have been made at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition for the holding of public conventions, concerts, meetings, dinners and social functions of all kinds. Twenty large affairs of this nature may be held at the same hour, and the various halls and places of outdoor meeting vary in seating from 300 to 25,000 people.

The largest place of public gathering is represented by the stadium, and the two grand stands facing the track and ball fields offer seating accommodation for 20,000. In addition to these seats, 35 boxes are placed at the sides and in each are 15 chairs. At the right and left of the grand stands 5,700 others may be seated. Boxes are provided for the press, expectation officials and distinguished guests. In the stadium will be held all the athletic events, competitive drills by various organizations, military manoeuvres, games, and every event of an athletic or outdoor nature.

The natural amphitheatre has seats for 10,000 spectators. It is fitted with a stage 150x75 feet, and will be used by the Exposition Society Singing Society, the German Singing Society, German Singschola and many gatherings of various sorts.

The play, "The Bridge of the Gods," will be produced by the students of the Pacific University late in June, and will be reproduced several times during July. Special scenery will be used, and the cast requires 140 players.

The auditorium has seats for 3,000, and is beautifully lighted and fitted through the roof with special state ceremonies, national day services, symphony orchestra concerts, Schubert Club concerts and similar events.

The Fine Arts Hall has seating room for about 500, and will be used for conventions and gatherings of a scientific nature.

The Washington Building has been offered the committee on ceremonies and special days, and will be used principally in the evening for balls, dinners, receptions and other events of social importance.

A grand stand with seats for 5,000 has been erected on the shores of Lake Union, near the government life-saving station, and from this place a desirable position is had for witnessing the many displays of fireworks discharged from the lake, and commands a view of many of the important aquatic events.

Receptions to women's clubs and organizations will generally be held in the Washington Woman's building, and this is fitted with an auditorium 50x60 feet.

Nearly all of the state and county buildings are fitted with reception places and lecture halls. The Canadian and Grand Trunk buildings will carry particularly for Canadian guests and friends, and information entertainment rooms are found in each.

OVERTAXED NERVES
A DISTRESS SIGNAL

The Trouble Can Only Be Cured
By Enriching the Blood Supply.

When your nervous system is exhausted the trouble makes itself evident in many ways. You feel always fatigued and unfit for work. Severe headaches distract you; your back is weak; you sleep badly; your appetite is uncertain; you are nervous and irritable and after any exercise you tremble and perspire excessively. If the trouble is not checked your case goes from bad to worse until you feel that your condition is hopeless and that insanity is threatened.

Your nerves are calling for help. They are starved because they demand from the blood more nourishment than it can supply. New rich blood is the secret of new strength and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cure nervous disorders because they feed the weak, exhausted nerves with rich red blood. The case of Mrs. Emma Hall of Hamilton, Ont., furnishes proof that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure even the most stubborn cases of nerve exhaustion. Mrs. Hall was left a widow and was forced to work in a mill to maintain herself and her two little children. She bravely faced the battle of life, though she had never had to conform to such conditions before. Notwithstanding the splendid spirit she displayed the work played havoc with a delicate constitution, and some years ago Mrs. Hall noticed signs in herself of a nervous collapse. She consulted a doctor who gave her some medicine and told her she "would be all right in a few days." But relief did not come and it was finally a daily occurrence for her to faint at her work. These fainting spells quickly developed into pronounced hysteria and chronic irritability, and Mrs. Hall says that death would have been a relief. She consulted several doctors but got no help, and she felt that she was almost bordering on insanity. In this condition she was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Grasping at even the possibility of help she decided to do so. After taking three boxes she actually found some improvement, and from that time on this improvement was steady and increasing daily until after a few months she felt the cure was complete. She says "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done what doctors failed to do and what I myself thought was impossible. They have freed me from the terrible trouble I suffered and my old joy in life has been renewed."—When Mrs. Hall began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills she weighed only one hundred pounds while under her renewed health her weight has increased to one hundred and thirty pounds.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be had from any dealer in medicines or will be sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"HEADACHE, WEAKNESS, HEART TROUBLE"
"I Suffered With for Years—Pe-ru-na Cured Me Entirely."

Miss Albina Chauvin, No. 50 Rue Agnes, St. Henri, Montreal, Can., writes:
"I consider Peruna better than any other remedy, as it cured me when nothing else could. I suffered for years and years with heart trouble, headache and weakness. I never expected to find anything to cure me. I saw one day, in 'La Presse,' that Peruna was excellent and I tried it. One bottle produced a change in me and if the price had been $100 a bottle I would have paid it gladly. I have taken six bottles and am entirely cured. Please accept my thanks and best wishes for your Peruna."

Many cases of heart trouble are caused by reflex disturbances. Derangements of the stomach and liver produce symptoms of heart trouble. Catarrh of the stomach is a very frequent cause of sympathetic heart disease. Palpitation, shortness of breath and bloating after meals are the most prominent symptoms.

Such a condition of the stomach is also liable to produce headaches of the worst sort. Medicines that palliate the symptoms will never lead to a cure. It is the effect which Peruna has upon the stomach, healing the mucous membranes and restoring the natural function of the stomach, that causes Peruna to bring such prompt relief.

HERMIT SCULPTOR OF ROTHEUF EUF.

In the June Wide World magazine, Frederic Lees writes interestingly of "The Hermit of Rothenueuf," or Abbe Fourre, to call him by his real name, who has his home near St. Malo, where he has sculptured the rocks for miles around. "As you descend the steep which he has cut in the hard rock," says Mr. Lees, "you suddenly come upon one of the most extraordinary sights in France. On all sides are standing or reclining figures, some of them isolated, others in groups. The entire face of the cliff seems alive with saints, devils, and fantastic animals. Thence, you may not notice all at the first glance, you quickly discover that there is hardly a square yard of rock that has not been utilized by the sculptor in a most clever manner. Here he has seen a suggestion for that could be converted into a couchant saint, with a long beard and a curiant head-dress, and there, again, a series of irregularly-shaped rocks that wanted little change to turn them into a family group—that of a fisherman of Rothenueuf, his wife, and their five children, one of whom is lying on its mother's lap. You will notice, too, that a fish, bearing a certain resemblance to a shark, appears beneath the rock on which the fisherman is sitting, and that by the position of its snout it
